draws on Schumpeter's theory of creative destruction to analyse the implications of copyright law and policy on the book industry and illustrate the dynamic interaction between copyright expansion and the growth of the creative industries. The book reviews the historical development of UK copyright expansion and also considers copyright in the digital age. It explores the legal and economic concerns about copyright protection in general and the expansion of copyright duration in particular. Using an innovative empirical method, it explores whether the expansion of the duration of copyright promotes or precludes the growth of the book publishing industry. It goes on to suggest changes to copyright policy which would have an impact on the economics of innovation in the creative industries. This book will be of particular interest to scholars and students of Intellectual Property Law.

Interdisciplinary Research in Technology and Management Satyajit Chakrabarti, Ashiq A. Sakib, Souti Chattopadhyay, Sanghamitra Poddar, Anupam Bhattacharya, Malay Gangopadhyaya, 2024-05-30 IRTM 2023

We live in an interconnected world. In the era of Industry 5.0, technology is getting embedded more and more in the way we learn, live, work, and play. This progression is accelerating at a pace never seen before. Interdisciplinary and collaborative research across disciplines within the Technology domain and Management domain and across the Technology Management interface is opening up exciting new possibilities for solving problems whose solutions are beyond the scope of a single discipline, domain, or practice and helping to create a brave new world. We are living in an incredible time of change. Our effort to hold such an interdisciplinary conference in the virtual mode apparently resonated across the academic community as was evident from the huge response that the first ever conference on Interdisciplinary Research in Technology and Management IRTM held in February 2021 had received from participants across many countries. This has encouraged the organizers to hold the next edition of the conference physically in Kolkata on a larger scale in the online mode. The pandemic unleashed by Covid-19 in the last two years has shaken the socio-economic foundations of countries and societies to a point where the world cannot be the same as before the pandemic. It has refocused the world's attention on the priority of healthcare and healthcare infrastructure and its innovative management. Inevitably, questions have again been raised more vehemently on what kind of a world we want to live in. Environmental concerns are being pursued with renewed vigour. The urgency of developing new robust infrastructure relevant for the new world is gaining wider consensus. By 2030, as reports suggest, cyber-physical systems, internet of things, and wearable technology will be everywhere, and in everything, renewable energy will power the world, and digital entertainment will take centre stage among other developments. The third edition of the conference on Interdisciplinary Research in Technology and Management attempts to spotlight the above concerns. The number of tracks on which papers are invited from scholars, researchers, consultants, and practitioners to share their interdisciplinary research and consultative work has been enlarged. As before, the papers will be peer-reviewed, and authors of the selected papers will be invited to present their papers in the IRTM conference. The presentation of papers will be interspersed with Keynote Talks by eminent experts on the theme of the conference or individual domains. Sustainability
