

Child Safe Standard 6

Organisations make sure that people working with children are suitable. Staff are supported and know what to do to keep children safe from abuse and harm.

Your organisation must:

- focus on child safety and wellbeing when hiring new staff and volunteers. This can be in advertising, referee checks, and screening, before they start work.
- make sure that staff and volunteers have the right background checks
- make sure that new staff know what they must do to keep children safe from abuse and harm. This includes:
 - keeping good records
 - knowing when to share information
 - knowing when and how to make a report
- make sure managers help staff to focus on child safety.

Child Safe Standard 7

Processes for complaints and concerns are child focused

Your organisation must:

- have a complaints policy. This policy must:
 - be easy to find and read
 - be child focused
 - explain:
 - what managers, staff, and volunteers must do
 - how to manage different types of complaints
 - what to do if policies or the Code of Conduct are not followed
 - when your organisation needs to make a report to authorities, like the police
- make sure that children, families, staff, and volunteers all understand how your organisation manages complaints
- handle complaints properly and in a culturally safe way
- take all complaints seriously and respond quickly
- have policies and procedures about:
 - how to report complaints to your organisation
 - who to report to
 - when to make a report
 - how to report complaints to, and work with, police and other authorities
- follow all laws about reporting, privacy, and employment.
