And Animal Moving Image Michael Lawrence:

Animal Life and the Moving Image Michael Lawrence, Laura McMahon, 2019-07-25 From the proto cinematic sequencing of animal motion in the nineteenth century to the ubiquity of animal videos online the histories of animal life and the moving image are enigmatically interlocked Animal Life and the Moving Image is the first collection of essays to offer a sustained focus on the relations between screen cultures and non human animals The volume brings together some of the most important and influential writers working on the non human animal s significance for cultures and theories of the moving image It offers innovative analyses of the representation of animals across a wide range of documentary fiction mainstream and avant garde practices from early cinema to contemporary user generated media Individual chapters consider King Kong The Birds The Misfits The Cove Grizzly Man and Microcosmos the work of Sergei Eisenstein Robert Bresson Malcolm Le Grice Peter Greenaway Carolee Schneemann and Isabella Rossellini and YouTube stars Christian the lion and Maru the cat

Animals and Greek Cinema Nikitas Fessas, 2025-05-02 This book offers a non anthropocentric account of a national cinema Drawing on cutting edge developments in Animal film studies the book gathers a wide range of species and genres to discuss the Greek cinematic animal This entails recalibrating the readers viewers gazes to include particular nonhumans often displaced in the frame s margins While acknowledging the cost paid in animal suffering for Greek cinema to rise the book features instances of animal human bonding Combining close readings with interviews with directors human actors screenwriters cinematographers producers special effects artists and animal wranglers this book proposes a paradigm of human animal praxis arguing that revisiting nonhuman images can lead to renewed ethical relations and to less speciesist cinemas film industries and societies

The Lives of Animals in Words and Images Željko Uvanović, Suzana Marjanić, 2025-06-26 This Animal Studies collection unravels the complex ways we represent non humans across cultures and media but primarily focusing on their image in literature and film From Noah s Ark to the haunting imagery in Hitchcock s The Birds this book probes the ethical and symbolic roles creatures play in our lives It examines everything from the portrayal of insects in ancient texts to the depiction of cats as villains in Disney films Each chapter challenges our perceptions inviting readers to reflect on the cultural significance of animals in today s world Examine your perspectives on anthropocentrism and anthropomorphism in documentary filmmaking confront the legal and ethical dilemmas of animals in entertainment and ponder the harsh realities of animals exploited for human gain From ancient religious scriptures to contemporary film adaptations this meticulously curated collection of essays delves into the symbolic ethical and cultural significance of non human creatures in our still speciesist global society

Animality and Horror Cinema Peter Sands, Mo O' Neill, Samantha Hind, 2025-09-15 Animality and Horror Cinema provides a wide ranging overview of the role played by animals in the genre of horror cinema Across four sections that unite affective and generic modes of horror with animals animality and the discourse of species the volume demonstrates the multivalent operation of animality in transnational cinemas that look beyond the trope of monstrous adversity associated with the creature feature With chapters focusing on the extrusion of animals from horror narratives the multisensorial dimensions of animal horror the intrusion of documentary violence and the horrific contiguity of human and nonhuman flesh it argues for the concept of creaturely fear as a lens through which to read horror s blurring of the species barrier The collection appeals to those interested in the intersection of animal and film studies with memory studies afropessimism and critical race theory posthumanism biopolitics ecocriticism queer theory and vegan theory Cinema offfor the Anthropocene Katarzyna Paszkiewicz,Andrea Ruthven,2025-01-31

Cinema of for the Anthropocene sheds new light on the question of how films can allow us to resituate ourselves within what is known today as the Anthropocene The authors address this question through a variety of disciplines and theoretical perspectives from film and cultural studies new materialisms critical posthumanism and animal studies critical race theory and Indigenous media studies to gender and sexuality studies with a primary focus on films produced in the United States and Canada The volume moves beyond the mere acknowledgment of the devastating damage inflicted during the Anthropocene to think about new ways of inhabiting the world through concepts such as affect response ability and more than human kinship The writers in this collection respond to its invitation by addressing a range of genres and modes thus complicating the apocalyptic discourses which have typically been central to the studies on the Anthropocene in addition to dystopian films the volume discusses animated films Hollywood biopics climate change documentaries experimental film comedy horror sci fi as well as disease thriller and survival film Taken together the chapters offer cross disciplinary readings of the cinema of for the Anthropocene showing ways in which it can help us re orient our thinking to make sense of the current age and address the planetary scale environmental catastrophe This volume will appeal to researchers and students in film studies cultural studies and the burgeoning field of environmental humanities Making Animals Public Professor Gay Hawkins,Dr Ben Dibley,2024-06-01

Natural history television on the ABC has been one of the public broadcaster s most popular formats For many viewers TV has been an important contact zone for engaging with animals they would never encounter in everyday life These animals have also played a critical role in developing environmental awareness But how did animals get to be on the small screen and what happened to them when they got there Making Animals Public Inside the ABC s Natural History Archive traces the cultural and political evolution of the natural history animal on the ABC It explores different modes of capture from cages to cameras what has come to count as a natural history animal over time and the various sites they have inhabited from nature to the nation to the environment to the planet In early natural history programs audiences were invited to watch as sovereign humans there to learn or be entertained by animals that were exotic or aesthetic or scientifically interesting Whatever the framing these animals were resolutely other In recent times natural history animals have become more assertive They are now posing uncomfortable questions to human viewers about exploitation extinction and mutual implication in catastrophic whole earth processes like climate change Using a wide range of screen examples ranging from the 1950s to the 2020s Making Animals Public focuses on shifting cultural and sociotechnical practices in ABC natural history television Combining science and technology studies screen studies and critical animal studies this book develops an innovative interdisciplinary analysis of how televisual animality is crafted and made believable Making Animals Public analyses the significant role public television has played in filming and circulating a vast array of animals and habitats that had never been seen before How these animals were visualised and accounted for has continually evolved What has remained constant is the fact that natural history television has been a hugely important site for exploring the various politics of human animal relations good and bad and for nurturing environmental awareness in audiences

Imagination and Art: Explorations in Contemporary Theory Keith Moser, Ananta Ch. Sukla, 2020-07-27 This transdisciplinary project represents the most comprehensive study of imagination to date The eclectic group of international scholars who comprise this volume propose bold and innovative theoretical frameworks for re conceptualizing imagination in all of its divergent forms Imagination and Art Explorations in Contemporary Theory explores the complex nuances paradoxes and aporias related to the plethora of artistic mediums in which the human imagination manifests itself As a fundamental attribute of our species which other organisms also seem to possess with varying degrees of sophistication imagination is the very fabric of what it means to be human into which everything is woven This edited collection demonstrates that imagination is the resin that binds human civilization together for better or worse Audiovisual Materials, 1979
