Bryant, 2015 The International Handbook features chapters by leading scholars from around the world in a unique collection exploring the multi disciplinary field of political ecology This landmark volume canvasses key developments topics issues debates and concepts showcasing how political ecologists today address pressing social and environmental concerns Introductory chapters provide an overview of political ecology and the Handbook Remaining chapters examine five broad themes issues and approaches governance and power knowledge and discourse method and scale connections and transformations Across diverse topics and perspectives these chapters amount to a wide ranging survey of current research making the International Handbook an indispensable reference for scholars and students in political ecology Annals of the Carnegie Museum, 2013 Land, People and Power in Early Medieval Wales Rhiannon Comeau, 2020 This study examines the structure of the early medieval Welsh landscape Using a cantref hundred in south west Wales as a case study it draws on a multidisciplinary comparative analysis to overcome the limits imposed by restricted material culture survival and limited written sources It examines the patterns of power and habitual activity that defined spaces and structured lives and considers the temporal relationships both seasonal and longue dur e that shaped them Four key findings are presented Firstly that key areas of early medieval life agriculture tribute payment legal processes and hunting were structured by a longstanding seasonal patterning that is preserved in twelfth and thirteenth century Welsh law church and well dedications and fair dates Secondly it presents at cantref level the first systematic survey of assembly site evidence in Wales and sets it in comparative context Thirdly it demonstrates that though poor material culture preservation and limited written records have hitherto restricted identification and characterisation of key locations in the early medieval Welsh landscape a multidisciplinary dataset allows effective identification of focal zones through indicators known from other areas of north west Europe Fourthly the widely used multiple estate model is found to be an inadequate descriptor of the early medieval Welsh landscape An alternative approach is proposed Methodologically it demonstrates the value of a multidisciplinary approach especially the systematic use of place names which is novel in a Welsh context It also provides key resources for other researchers by geolocating pre 1700 place names from a previously published survey creating GIS resources polygons and geolocated databases from the 1840s tithe map and schedules for parishes in its detailed case study areas and providing a geolocated database of 16th century demesne and Welsh law landholdings in the cantref
