Agricultural Pastoral Landscapes Pre Industrial Society:

Agricultural and Pastoral Landscapes in Pre-Industrial Society Fèlix Retamero, Inge Schjellerup, Althea Davies, 2014-12-01
Through a series of case studies this third volume in the Earth series deals with the technological constraints and innovations that enabled societies to survive and thrive across a range of environmental conditions. The contributions are structured into three sections to draw out particular commonalities and contrasts in the choices made by pre industrial communities in the construction of varied landscapes and cultural heritage. Landnam from the Old Norse for taking of land deals with colonization including the drivers and processes through which colonizers developed an understanding of the productive potential and limitations of their new lands. Fields and field systems. Field walls are a distinctive and apparently timeless characteristic of many pre industrial farming landscapes but they present many the challenges to their study such as the effects of plowing abandonment and land use change and of urban development in fertile lowland zones which may eradicate reduce or conceal past systems of land use and division. The importance of indirect and proxy evidence is illustrated and the value of interdisciplinary and modeling approaches emphasized. Agro pastoralism focuses on the complex time space adaptations devised for managing cultivation and livestock production particularly the need to prevent stock incursions into arable fields during the growing season whilst making effective use of seasonal grazing resources. The contributions focus on mountainous areas where temporary migrations in the form of transhumance provided access to a diversity of resources based around seasonal constraints on their availability and productivity. Transhumance and the Making of Ireland's Uplands, 1550-1900 Eugene Costello, 2020 First full survey of how transhumance operated in Ireland from the sixteenth century to the beginning of the twentieth. Insights into Islamic Archaeology and Material Culture Katia Cytryn, Kristoffer Damgaard, Donald Whitcomb, 2025-05-31 Insights into Islamic Archaeology and Material Culture explores the evolution of this dynamic field highlighting new methodologies interdisciplinary approaches and shifting paradigms. Stemming from a 2013 seminar in Jerusalem the volume critically examines whether the means and goals of Islamic archaeology have changed significantly from those that defined the discipline's major advances in the twentieth century. The book's fourteen contributors reassess long held perspectives emphasizing the need to move beyond orientalist interpretations and historiographic dependencies and instead foster a more neutral and analytical approach to early Islamic material culture. The collection showcases research on key sites such as Qusayr Amra Khirbat al Mafjar and al Sinnabra and offers fresh views on settlement patterns agricultural economies and the sociopolitical functions of Umayyad palaces among other topics. The volume also highlights the interplay among archaeology conservation and cultural heritage studies illustrating how technical advances such as the conservation of Qusayr Amra's frescoes have reshaped scholars' understanding of early Islamic visual culture. Its essays challenge established narratives of cultural decline following the rise of Islam demonstrating instead a dynamic period of adaptation innovation and exchange still reflected in later eras as evidenced by Islamic interactions with the Frankish world Through its diverse perspectives Insights into Islamic Archaeology and Material Culture serves as both a critical reassessment of the field's past and a blueprint for its future fundamentally advocating for an inclusive methodologically rigorous approach that integrates archaeology with the broader humanities and social sciences The Late Medieval Landscape of North-east Scotland Colin Shepherd, 2021-10-31 The landscape of the north east of Scotland ranges from wild mountains to undulating farmlands from cosy quaint fishing coves to long sandy bays This landscape witnessed the death of MacBeth the final stand of the Comyns earls of Buchan against Robert the Bruce and the last victory in Britain of a catholic army at Glenlivet But behind these momentous battles lie the quieter histories of ordinary folk farming the land and supping their local malts Colin Shepherd paints a picture of rural life within the landscapes of the north east between the 13th and 18th centuries by using documentary cartographic and archaeological evidence He shows how the landscape was ordered by topographic and environmental constraints that resulted in great variation across the region and considers the evidence for the way late medieval lifestyles developed and blended sustainably within their environments to create a patchwork of cultural and agricultural diversity However these socio economic developments subsequently led to a breakdown of this structure resulting in what Adam Smith in the 18th century described as oppression The 12th century Renaissance the Protestant Reformation and the Industrial Revolution are used here to define a framework for considering the cultural changes that affected this region of Scotland These include the dispossession of rights to land ownership that continue to haunt policy makers in the Scottish government today While the story also shows how a regional cultural divergence recognized here can undermine big theories of socio political change when viewed across the wider stage of Europe and the Americas Progress in Botany Vol. 83 Ulrich Lüttge, Francisco M. Cánovas, María-Carmen Risueño, Christoph Leuschner, Hans Pretzsch, 2022-10-31 With one volume each year this series keeps scientists and advanced students informed of the latest developments and results in all areas of the plant sciences This latest volume includes reviews on plant physiology biochemistry genetics and genomics forests and ecosystems Exploring Outremer Volume II Rabei G. Khamisy, Rafael Y. Lewis, Vardit Shotten-Hallel, 2023-05-24 This collection is published in the Crusades Subsidia series in honour of Professor Adrian J Boas an archaeologist historian and scholar who has contributed widely and significantly to the study and teaching of the Middle Ages Professor Boas research encompasses the archaeology of the Latin East military orders with particular emphasis on the Teutonic Order material culture architecture and medieval art historiography and not least the Crusades and the Latin East Exploring Outremer Volume II is a collection of 15 original essays by the leading scholars in the field on the history and archaeology of the Latin East It covers aspects dealing with the history archaeology architecture and function of several castles and fortifications in the Latin Kingdom and presents new studies on the material including pottery numismatics and many other finds In addition it includes a chapter dealing with landscape archaeology This book will appeal to researchers and students alike interested in the Kingdom of Jerusalem and Duchies of Edessa and Antioch
