This volume takes a multi disciplinary approach to uncover both the mechanisms by which saints cults spread and also the manner in which veneration of the saints drove other forms of political cultural and social expression Focussed on the cult of Oswald of Northumbria in the high Middle Ages this volume brings together historians literary scholars musicologists and art historians to explore the cult of saints through texts objects space sound and the senses and particularly interrogates the influence of liturgy on society Oswald s cult spread far in time and space from its origins in seventh century Northumbria and the essays in this volume seek to understand how liturgical commemoration and celebration of Oswald in different times and places drove developments in cultural expression initiating new styles in musical as well as visual and material art forms
