An Elegy For Easterly Stories:

An Elegy for Easterly Petina Gappah, 2009-05-26 A woman in a township in Zimbabwe is surrounded by throngs of dusty children but longs for a baby of her own an old man finds that his new job making coffins at No Matter Funeral Parlor brings unexpected riches a politician's widow stands quietly by at her husband's funeral watching his colleagues bury an empty casket Petina Gappah's characters may have ordinary hopes and dreams but they are living in a world where a loaf of bread costs half a million dollars where wives can't trust even their husbands for fear of AIDS and where people know exactly what will be printed in the one and only daily newspaper because the news is always always good In her spirited debut collection the Zimbabwean writer Petina Gappah brings us the resilience and inventiveness of the people who struggle to live under Robert Mugabe's regime She takes us across the city of Harare from the townships beset by power cuts to the manicured lawns of privilege and corruption where wealthy husbands keep their first wives in the big houses while their unofficial second wives wait in the small houses hoping for a promotion Despite their circumstances the characters in An Elegy for Easterly are more than victims they are all too human with as much capacity to inflict pain as to endure it They struggle with the larger issues common to all people everywhere failed promises unfulfilled dreams and the yearning for something to anchor them to life

Elegy for Easterly Petina Gappah, 2019-01-03 The government has cleaned up Harare for the Queen of England's visit The townships are too full of people they said gather them up and put them in the places the Queen will not see Four waves of people have settled on Easterly Farm since then living on the margins in homes that will soon be destroyed Among them is Martha Mupengo She has lost her wits and gained a pregnancy Who could be the baby's father and what fate awaits mothers and children in this temporary poverty stricken town

An Elegy for Easterly Petina Gappah, 1988 A Biography of Story, A Brief History of Humanity Trish Nicholson, 2016-11-10 An entertaining cultural history and a highly original take on the power of stories in societies past and present Trish Nicholson brings us a unique interweaving of literature and history seen through the eyes of storytellers making a fascinating journey for general readers and students alike From tales of the Bedouin to Homer Aesop and Valmiki and from Celtic bards and Icelandic skalds to Chaucer Rabelais Shakespeare Scott and Chekhov some of the many storytellers featured will be familiar to you others from Africa Asia and the Pacific may be fresh discoveries Beginning with oral tales of our foraging ancestors the emergence of writing the great migrations the age of exploration and the invention of printing through to the industrial revolution and the digital age Nicholson brings us voices from all corners of the world Combining this extraordinary breadth with telling myths epics fables fairy tales and legends she reveals their story power in the comedy and tragedy of human affairs And what of Story's future A Biography of Story A Brief History of Humanity is our own human epic thoroughly researched and referenced and told with the imaginative flair of an accomplished storyteller This is a book lover's book illustrated and handsomely presented in hardback and paperback volumes designed to have and to hold Key selling points Unique in scope beginning with pre history through to the digital age Deeply researched but written in an easy entertaining and accessible style with imagination and humour Ideal foundation reading for students of literature history writing and humanities The Politics of the Past in Zimbabwe ,2025-04-07 Zimbabwe is a country whose longer past and shifting post independence politics have both included violent histories as well as often violent contestations over history itself The Politics of the Past in Zimbabwe addresses the many ways in which pasts are variously experienced remembered claimed denied or contested by differently positioned actors and how this in turn shapes the politics of the present It explores how such contestation is expressed in literature art and the media through exhumations and reburials in state apology and political myth making and in both traditional cultural heritage sites and the making of new national symbols Contributors are Jocelyn Alexander Elleke Boehmer Shadreck Chirikure Simbarashe Shadreck Chitima Lena Englund Shari Eppel Petina Gappah Amanda Hammar Pedzisai Maedza Owen Maseko Mphathisi Ndlovu Minna Johanna Niemi Astrid Rasch Timothy Scarnecchia Thomas Thondhlana Katja Uusihakala

The Routledge Handbook of Disability and Sexuality Russell Shuttleworth,Linda Mona,2020-12-29 This handbook provides a much needed holistic overview of disability and sexuality research and scholarship With authors from a wide range of disciplines and representing a diversity of nationalities it provides a multi perspectival view that fully captures the diversity of issues and outlooks Organised into six parts the contributors explore long standing issues such as the psychological interpersonal social political and cultural barriers to sexual access that disabled people face and their struggle for sexual rights and participation The volume also engages issues that have been on the periphery of the discourse such as sexual accommodations and support aimed at facilitating disabled people s sexual well being the socio sexual tensions confronting disabled people with intersecting stigmatised identities such as LGBTBI or asexual and the sexual concerns of disabled people in the Global South It interrogates disability and sexuality from diverse perspectives from more traditional psychological and sociological models to various subversive and post theoretical perspectives and queer theory This handbook examines the cutting edge and sometimes ethically contentious concerns that have been repressed in the field With current international and comprehensive content this book is essential reading for students academics and researchers in the areas of disability gender and sexuality as well as applied disciplines such as healthcare practitioners counsellors psychology trainees and social workers Ethics and Human Rights in Anglophone African Women's Literature Chielozone Eze,2016-12-14 This book proposes feminist empathy as a model of interpretation in the works of contemporary Anglophone African women writers The African woman s body is often portrayed as having been disabled by the patriarchal and sexist structures of society Returning to their bodies as a point of reference rather than the postcolonial ideology of empire contemporary African women writers demand fairness and equality By showing how this literature deploys imaginative shifts in perspective with women experiencing unfairness injustice or oppression because of their gender Chielozone Eze argues that by considering feminist empathy discussions open up about how this literature directly addresses the systems that put them in disadvantaged positions This book therefore engages a new ethical and human rights awareness in African literary and cultural discourses highlighting the openness to reality that is compatible with African multi ethnic multi racial and increasingly cosmopolitan communities

Slavery, Migrations, and Transformations: Connecting Old and New Diasporas to the Homeland - Student Edition Falola, Toyin, Sanchez, Danielle Porter ,2015-07-30 Note this is an abridged version of the book with references removed The complete edition is also available on this website From the historical movements of enslaved Africans to the Americas to newer migrations of Africans to spaces like Belgium and France experiences of blackness on a global stage reflect themes of negotiation persecution isolation unification remembrance and much more Yet it is impossible to minimize the complex experiences that make up the African diaspora throughout the world as diasporic communities face a range of struggles specifically related to the politics of identity and connections to the continent of Africa itself This book is thus a timely and much needed exploration of the intricate nature of culture and life in the African diaspora It examines identities collectivities and relationships with Africa and Africans It helps fill a gap in the field by illuminating the complex experiences of blackness in a manner that motivates readers to grapple with the nuances diaspora studies and African issues on a global stage This book balances conceptualizations of diaspora by engaging with scholars exploring old African diasporas newer migrations and even regional movement within the continent of Africa itself More importantly the chronological breadth of the volume allows readers to explore historical matters alongside comparable contemporary issues as a way of assessing continuities and the ways in which communities continue to grapple with institutional racism political marginalization and negotiations between tradition and modernity on a global stage Furthermore the interdisciplinary nature of the book offers diverse approaches for robust engagement with African diaspora studies

African Migration, Human Rights and Literature Fareda Banda,2020-12-24 This innovative book looks at the topic of migration through the prism of law and literature The author uses a rich mix of novels short stories literary realism human rights and comparative literature to explore the experiences of African migrants and asylum seekers The book is divided into two Part one is conceptual and focuses on art activism and the myriad ways in which people have sought to write justice Using Mazrui s diasporas of slavery and colonialism it then considers histories of migration across the centuries before honing in on the recent anti migration policies of western states Achiume is used to show how these histories of imposition and exploitation create a bond which bestows on Africans a status as co sovereigns of the First World through citizenship The many fictional examples of the schemes used to gain entry are set against the formal legal processes Attention is paid to life post arrival which for asylum seekers may include periods in detention The impact of the increased hostility of receiving states is examined in light of their human rights obligations Consideration is paid to how Africans navigate their post migration lives which includes reconciling themselves to status fracture taking on jobs for which they are over qualified while simultaneously dealing with the resentment borne of status threat on the part of the citizenry Part two moves from the general to consider the intersections of gender and status focusing on women LGBTI individuals and children Focusing on their human rights and the fictional literature chapter four looks at women who have been trafficked as well as domestic workers and hotel maids while chapter five is on LGBTI people whose legal and literary stories are only now being told The final substantive chapter considers the experiences of children who may arrive as unaccompanied minors Using a mixture of poetry and first person accounts the chapter examines the post arrival lives of children some of whom may be citizens but who are continually made to feel like outsiders The conclusion follows starting with two stories about walls by Hadero and Lanchester which are used to illustrate the themes discussed in the book Few African lawyers write about literature and few books and articles in Western law and literature look at books by or about Africans so a book that engages with both is long overdue This book provides fascinating reading for academics students of law literature gender and migration studies and indeed the general public The Publishers Weekly ,2009 Out of Darkness, Shining Light Petina Gappah,2019 A powerful moving and revelatory novel set in nineteenth century Africa the captivating story of the loyal men and women who carried the body of explorer and missionary David Livingstone from Zambia to Zanzibar so that his remains could be returned home to England Dawn 1 May 1873 on the outskirts of Chitambo s village near Lake Bangweulu in modern day Zambia The Scottish explorer and missionary David Livingstone has died He had been heading south in the African interior on an increasingly maniacal mission to penetrate the greatest secret of Victorian exploration He wanted to find the source of the world s longest river the Nile Instead on an isolated and swampy floodplain Dr Livingstone found his death How Livingstone is to be buried will be decided by his African companions a group of sixty nine men women and children They decide that come what may Livingstone his papers and maps must all be carried to England They bury his heart and other organs under a tree and dry his flesh like jerky in the sun Over nine months battling severe illness and hunger hostile chiefs and unknown terrain all while taking a tortuous route of more than 1 000 miles to the coast to avoid marauding slave traders they march with Livingstone s body and the evidence of his explorations Their journey has been called the most extraordinary story in African exploration In this novel their story is retold anew in the distinct indelible voices of Livingstone s sharp tongued female cook Halima a repressed formerly enslaved African missionary named Jacob Wainwright and the collective voice of the retainers The result is a profound and tragic journey an epic like no other that encompasses all of the hypocrisy of slavery and colonization while celebrating resilience loyalty and love In Out of Darkness Shining Light Petina Gappah has created an ambitious and artful masterpiece Kaapse bibliotekaris ,2010 Issues for Nov 1957 include section Accessions Aanwinste Sept 1957 The Book of Memory Petina Gappah,2016-02-02 Memory the narrator of this novel is an albino woman languishing in Chikurubi Maximum Security Prison in Harare Zimbabwe after being sentenced for murder As part of her appeal her lawyer insists that she write down what happened as she remembers it The death penalty is a mandatory sentence for murder and Memory is both literally and metaphorically writing for her life As her story unfolds Memory reveals that she has been tried and convicted for the murder of Lloyd Hendricks her adopted father But who was Lloyd Hendricks Why does Memory feel no remorse for his death And did everything happen exactly as she remembers Dust jacket flap The Literary Review ,2009 The Writers Directory ,2013 Finding List of Books in the Public Library of Cincinnati Public Library of Cincinnati and Hamilton County,1884 Rotten Row Petina Gappah,2016-11-01 In her accomplished new story collection Petina Gappah crosses the barriers of class race gender and sexual politics in Zimbabwe to explore the causes and effects of crime and to meditate on the nature of justice Rotten Row represents a leap in artistry and achievement from the award winning author of An Elegy for Easterly and The Book of Memory With compassion and humour Petina Gappah paints portraits of lives aching for meaning to produce a moving and universal tableau Jungfrau Mary Watson,2007 The Caine prize is Africa s leading literary prize and is awarded to a short story by an African writer published in English Each year the winning story Jungfrau by Mary Watson from South Africa is the 2007 winner and the short listed entries are collected and published in one volume This is a diverse and stimulating collection from some of Africa s best writers The Poetical Works of Alfred, Lord Tennyson ... Alfred Tennyson Baron Tennyson,1908 The Poems of Alfred Lord Tennyson Alfred Tennyson Baron Tennyson,1928
