Heritage and Ruptures in Indian Literature, Culture and Cinema Cornelius Crowley, Geetha Ganapathy-Doré, 2017-03-07 This book investigates the millennial history of the Indian subcontinent Through the various methods adopted the objects and moments examined it questions various linguistic literary and artistic appropriations of the past to address the conflicting comprehensions of the present and also the figuring imagining of a possible future The volume engages with this general cultural condition in relation both to the subcontinent's current synchronic reality and to certain aspects of the culture's underlying diachronic determinations It also reveals how the multiple heritages are negotiated through the subcontinent's long term sedimentational history It scrutinizes both conservative interpretations of heritage and a possibly incremental enrichment and the additional possibility of a mode of appropriation open to a dialectic of creative destruction in which the patrimonial imperative is challenged leaving room for processes of renewal and rejuvenation The collection is organized around four major topics Orientalism addressed by way of the Tamil Epic Manimekalai through the evocation of the Hastings Circle and views on a possible Hindu Muslim unity sketched out by Sayyid Ahmed Khan modernism in Indian and Burmese texts written in English pictorial art through a consideration of the work of British Asian and Indian film directors and finally the current state of a body of critical thinking on gender All the Lives We Never Lived Anuradha Roy,2018 In my childhood I was known as the boy whose mother had run off with an Englishman So begins the story of Myshkin and his mother Gayatri its rebellious alluring artist heroine who is driven to abandon home and marriage and follow her primal instinct for freedom Freedom of another kind is in the air across all of India and in Germany the Nazis have come to power At this point of crisis a German artist from Gayatri s past seeks her out His arrival ignites passions she has long been forced to suppress What follows is Gayatri s life as pieced together by her son a journey that takes him through India and Dutch held Bali Excavating the roots of the world in which he was abandoned he comes to understand the connections between volcanic strife at home and a war torn universe overtaken by patriotism The scale of Anuradha Roy s novel is matched by its power as a parable for our times Its depiction of the contrasting ideas of Gandhi and Tagore of the limits of nationalism when confronted by cosmopolitanism makes it a spell binding saga centred on people trying to make sense of their lives Provided by publisher
