Street Commerce Andres Sevtsuk, 2020-06-12 A comprehensive analysis of the issues involved in planning for and facilitating successful street commerce Street commerce has gained prominence in urban areas where demographic shifts such as increasing numbers of single people and childless empty nesters along with technological innovations enabling greater flexibility of work locations and hours have changed how people shop and dine out Contemporary city dwellers are demanding smaller scale stores located in public spaces that are accessible on foot or by public transit At the same time the emergence of online retail undermines both the dominance and viability of big box discount businesses and drives brick and mortar stores to focus as much on the experience of shopping as on the goods and services sold Meanwhile in many developing countries the bulk of urban retail activity continues to take place on the street even as new car oriented shopping centers are on the rise In light of such trends street commerce will play an important role in twenty first century cities particularly in producing far reaching benefits for the environment and local communities Although street commerce is deeply intertwined with myriad contemporary urban visions and planning goals walkability quality of life inclusion equity and economic resilience it has rarely been the focus of systematic research and informed practice In Street Commerce Andres Sevtsuk presents a comprehensive analysis of the issues involved in implementing successful street commerce Drawing on economic theory urban design principles regulatory policies and merchant organization models he conceptualizes key problems and offers innovative solutions He provides a range of examples from around the world to detail how different cities and communities have bolstered and reinvigorated their street commerce According to Sevtsuk successful street commerce can only be achieved when the private sector urban policy makers planners and the public are equipped with the relevant knowledge and tools to plan and regulate it

Polish Architecture in Contemporary Innovation Nina Juzwa, Jakub Świerzawski, 2023-09-28 Authored by two architects Polish Architecture in Contemporary Innovation Thoughts Dreams and Places tells a story of buildings that were built in Poland between 1980 and 2020 as architecture developed in the Western world and Japan Its main focus is public utility buildings which the authors have touched in situ and which have moved them or sparked their interest The book is divided into three parts Part I focuses on the problem of creating and shaping architectural form and uses examples of both international and Polish architecture In this section the authors pose the question why is the Pritzker Prize so important Part II attempts to answer the question of how architecture can change the image of a place The answer consists of mainly Polish examples of user friendly architecture value and beauty in architecture and place Part III analyses buildings that were created in contemporary Poland Examples are listed in groups according to their function pointing out forms that were inspired by the culture of the region the historical culture of the place or those which are a new quality and are the foundation of the creation of a place This book aims to demonstrate Polish architectural solutions in the context of contemporary trends in the West traditionally seen as more technically and technologically developed countries The floor plans and sections of the buildings presented in the book show the beauty of geometric and formal solutions and give a new and rare perspective on the latest changes in modern Polish architecture This book will be of interest to architects as well as researchers and students of contemporary Polish architecture and culture and its place in the European and international context The Polish edition of this book published in 2021 by the National Institute of Architecture and Urban Planning in Warsaw received the Vitruvius Prize 2022 by the Architecture and Urban Planning Committee of the Polish Academy of Sciences
