

importance of service. (223) Children erupted into the final project of the day—a mural depicting unity and hope—was completed.

(224) As the event came to a close, plastic cups reflected on the impact they had made. (225) Many stayed behind, taking photos and discussing ways to continue making a difference throughout the year. (226) This was the heart of the initiative. (227) Jordan Blakoe, a junior at WHHS, said, “This event taught me that service isn’t just about giving—it’s about bringing people together to create something bigger than ourselves.”

(228) His words perfectly captured the mission of Mershon’s Day of Giving, an event that demonstrated the power of generosity and teamwork in strengthening a community.
