The Hybrid Media System Andrew Chadwick, 2017-08-01 New communication technologies have reshaped media and politics. But who are the new power players? The Hybrid Media System is a sweeping new theory of how political communication now works. Politics is increasingly defined by organizations, groups and individuals who are best able to blend older and newer media logics in what Chadwick terms a hybrid system. From American presidential campaigns to WikiLeaks from live prime ministerial debates to hotly contested political scandals from the daily practices of journalists and campaign workers to the struggles of new activist organizations the clash of media logics causes chaos and disintegration but also surprising new patterns of order and integration The updated second edition features a new preface and an extensive new chapter applying the conceptual framework to the extraordinary 2016 U S presidential campaign the rise of Donald Trump and the anti Trump resistance protests Monstrous Beings and Media Cultures Jessica Balanzategui,Allison Craven,2025-10-01 Monstrous Beings and Media Cultures examines the monsters and sinister creatures that spawn from folk horror Gothic fiction and from various sectors of media cultures The collection illuminates how folk monsters form across different art and media traditions and interrogates the 21C revitalization of folk as both a cultural formation and aesthetic mode The essays explore how combinations of vernacular and institutional creative processes shape the folkloric and or folkoresque attributes of monstrous beings their popularity and the contexts in which they are received While it focuses on 21C permutations of folk monstrosity the collection is transhistorical in approach featuring chapters that focus on contemporary folk monsters historical antecedents and the pre C21st art and media traditions that shaped enduring monstrous beings The collection also illuminates how folk monsters and folk horror travel across cultures media and time periods and how iconic monsters are tethered to yet repeatedly become unanchored from material and regional contexts Madonna Mary Gabriel,2023-10-10
