Beautiful We Kay Frazer,2014-12-01 Beautiful We teaches children about various childhood disabilities from the aspect of a child By opening up a real discussion about disabilities we are removing the fear of something a young child does not understand and replacing it with knowledge and compassion It allows children to understand that we are all different and that children with disabilities are just children like them By openly discussing disabilities with your child you are opening them up to developing friendships preventing future bullying and teaching them to embrace kindness for others Beautiful We can open discussion to be used in helping a child understand a loved ones condition foster better peer relationships and just to know that they live in a world in which every person is different yet has so much to offer It also teaches children that may have various conditions that they are not alone and all children are beautiful in their individuality I want to do what you do laugh and play We learn and we love in the same way You re a beautiful you I m a beautiful me let s be friends and make a beautiful we excerpt Beautiful We    On the Afterlife G. V. Loewen,2012-04-09 In On the Afterlife You Will Get There from Here author G V Loewen presents a new fascinating model of the concepts of the afterlife from early human societies to our own Based on four types this theory stands apart from any kind of personal evaluation or judgment whether or not the reader believes in the afterlife either in the form of a return to life in this world or a continuation of life in some other realm or not A fifth type is designated by the concept of nothingness an integral element of understanding what happens when we die Beginning with a discourse on how we remember and memorialize life in death and ending with a chapter on ethics On the Afterlife You Will Get There from Here demonstrates how the obligation is on us as human beings to make our lives worth dying for This intriguing book will change the way you think of the afterlife    Industrial-arts Magazine ,1926
