The Economy of Ghana Sixty Years after Independence Ernest Aryeetey,Ravi Kanbur,2017-02-09 As Ghana approaches its 60th birthday optimism and worries for the future continue to be present in equal measure Economic growth in the last decade has been high by historical standards Indeed recent rebasing of GDP figures has put Ghana over the per capita income threshold into Middle Income Country status However structural transformation has lagged behind Fiscal discipline has also eroded significantly and there is heavy borrowing especially on the commercial market while elements of the natural resource curse from oil have already occurred The question most observers ask is whether the gains from two decades of reforms are being reversed Given this background this volume brings together leading established and young economists from within and outside Ghana to analyze and assess the challenges facing Ghana's economy as it enters its seventh decade and the nation heads towards three quarters of a century of independence The chapters cover the major macroeconomic and sectoral issues including fiscal and monetary policy trade and industrialization agriculture and infrastructure The volume also covers a full range of social issues including poverty and inequality education health gender and social protection The book also examines the implications of the oil boom for Ghanaian development and the role of institutions Education Statistics, 2010 Covers annual trends on distribution of schools teachers enrollment textbooks infrastructure and BECE results across the districts in Ghana for all levels of basic education Daily Graphic Ransford Tetteh, 2014-04-15 Gender-Responsive Governance in Sierra Leone John Idriss Lahai, 2023-07-28

This book investigates gender equality and women's empowerment in Sierra Leone focusing especially on women's interactions with the state and its development partners In particular it highlights women's increasing agency in acquiring knowledge diffusing power engaging in grassroots politics and compelling the government to adopt more gender responsive policies Exploiting extensive fieldwork and original multidisciplinary research methods including econometric and statistical models the book first sets out the history and impact of inequality in Sierra Leone and then goes on to shed light on the constructive and collaborative engagement of women and the state on a variety of local and external strategies for promoting gender equality Drawing throughout on insights from across gender studies sociology anthropology economics and political science the book highlights how women are succeeding in transforming marginality into agency in order to build a platform for influencing change By qualifying and quantifying the challenges of gender inequality in Sierra Leone and the progress that is being made this book provides important insights that will be relevant to other fragile post conflict states within Africa The book will be of interest to students and researchers studying women and gender studies African studies economics international development sociology and political science and international relations It will also deepen policymakers and practitioners understanding of women's diverse trajectories and experiences and how the typology of government affects the patterns of inequality and equality Boletín del Centro de Documentación Científica y Técnica, México Centro de Documentación Científica y Técnica (Mexico City, Mexico), 1958 Boletín, 1958 Boletín Centro de Documentación Científica y Técnica de México, 1958 Education New Society Social Studies Reader, 1981 Making Sense of Social Studies David Jenness, 1990 EDUCATION Get Ready! for Social Studies : U.S. History Nancy
