Keith Sawyer,2013-01-11 Everyday conversations including gossip boasting flirting teasing and informative discussions are highly creative improvised interactions Children s play is also an important often improvisational activity One of the most improvisational games among 3 to 5 year old children is social pretend play also called fantasy play sociodramatic play or role play Children s imaginations have free reign during pretend play Conversations in these play episodes are far more improvisational than the average adult conversation Because pretend play occurs in a dramatized fantasy world it is less constrained by social and physical reality This book adds to our understanding of preschoolers pretend play by examining it in the context of a theory of improvisational performance genres This theory derived from in depth analyses of the implicit and explicit rules of theatrical improvisation proves to generalize to pretend play as well The two genres share several characteristics There is no script they are created in the moment There are loose outlines of structure which guide the performance They are collective no one person decides what will happen Because group improvisational genres are collective and unscripted improvisational creativity is a collective social process The pretend play literature states that this improvisational behavior is most prevalent during the same years that many other social and cognitive skills are developing Children between the ages of 3 and 5 begin to develop representations of their own and others mental states as well as learn to represent and construct narratives Freudian psychologists and other personality theorists have identified these years as critical in the development of the personality The author believes that if we can demonstrate that children s improvisational abilities develop during these years and that their fantasy improvisations become more complex and creative it might suggest that these social skills are linked to the child s developing ability to improvise with other creative performers      Adaptation Studies Christa Albrecht-Crane,Dennis Ray Cutchins,2010-07-31 The volume takes as its starting point the assumption that adapters cannot simply transpose or transfer one particular text from one medium to another They must interpret re work and re imagine the precursor text in order to choose the various meanings and sensations they find most compelling or most cost effective then they create scenes characters plot elements etc that match their interpretation These very relationships are the subject matter this collection seeks to explore Poststructural theory is an ideal place to begin a rigorous and theoretically sound investigation of adaptation As adaptation studies adopts a poststructuralist lens and defines this richer notion of intertextuality some of its key assumptions will change Adaptation scholars will recognize that all film adaptations are intertextual by definition multivocal by necessity and adaptive by their nature A Gift to Imagine Scott Ludwig, 2015-08-22 One of my favorite comic strips is Bill Watterson's Calvin and Hobbes Its based on the adventures and misadventures of six year old Calvin and his stuffed tiger Hobbes However in Calvins mind Hobbes is the real deal and the interactions between the two of them reflect that of a young boy and his living breathing tiger friend Calvins imagination is the stimulus of one of the most beloved humorous and heart warming comic strips of all time Calvin is the antithesis of what is going on in the world today Creativity and imagination seem to have taken a leave of absence recently Movies and television shows are constantly being remade New magazines look a lot like those already found on the newsstands Television commercials are for the most part sorely lacking in appeal Radio commercials Even worse Same old song same old story same old same old One of the things I love most about my grandson Krischan is his imagination Ive seen him invent an entire game using only a couple of sticks a handful of rocks and an ant bed Ive stood by his side as he saw and battled imaginary creatures so passionately I could have sworn I saw them too Ive heard him create words for things that make so much more sense to me than the actual word he should be using The boy has such a vivid imagination I make sure to pay close attention so I dont miss out on what he does or says next He is in a word Calvin Coincidentally my nickname for him since the day he was born is Tiger I have very single book chronicling the exploits of Calvin and Hobbes Ive been saving them for Krischan so one day he can appreciate the magic Bill Watterson has created I cant think of anyone better to pass the books along to and hope Krischan will be eager to tear into them once he learns how to read After he reads this book first of course
