A Companion to African Cinema Kenneth W. Harrow, Carmela Garritano, 2018-09-18 An authoritative guide to African cinema with contributions from a team of experts on the topic A Companion to African Cinema offers an overview of critical approaches to African cinema. With contributions from an international panel of experts the Companion approaches the topic through the lens of cultural studies contemporary transformations in the world order the rise of globalization film production distribution and exhibition. This volume represents a new approach to African cinema criticism that once stressed the sociological and sociopolitical aspects of a film. The text explores a wide range of broad topics including cinematic economics video movies life in cinematic urban Africa reframing human rights as well as more targeted topics such as the linguistic domestication of Indian films in the Hausa language and the importance of female African filmmakers and their successes in overcoming limitations caused by gender inequality. The book also highlights a comparative perspective of African videoscapes of Southern Nigeria Ethiopia and Côte d'Ivoire and explores the rise of Nairobi based Female Filmmakers. This important resource Puts the focus on critical analyses that take into account manifestations of the political changes brought by neocolonialism and the waning of the cold war. Explores Examines the urgent questions raised by commercial video about globalization Addresses issues such as funding the acquisition of adequate production technologies and apparatuses and the development of adequately trained actors. Written for film students and scholars A Companion to African Cinema offers a look at new critical approaches to African cinema.

Space Jennifer M. Bean, Anupama Kapse, Laura Horak, 2014-04-02 In this cross cultural history of narrative cinema and media from the 1910s to the 1930s leading and emergent scholars explore the transnational crossings and exchanges that occurred in early cinema between the two world wars Drawing on film archives from around the world this volume advances the premise that silent cinema freely crossed national borders and linguistic thresholds in ways that became far less possible after the emergence of sound These essays address important questions about the uneven forces geographic economic political psychological textual and experiential that underscore a non linear approach to film history The messiness of film history as demonstrated here opens a new realm of inquiry into unexpected political social and aesthetic crossings of silent cinema

The Project Diaries: Amber's survival Elizabeth Duran, 2018-07-27 The Project Diaries takes place in a world where some humans have a modified dormant gene that can be switched on at any moment Once awakened these specially modified humans must learn to grapple their new abilities quickly or face being captured and experimented on by the government Most are on the run or caught but some have found refuge through connecting to a strong underground rebellion of followers called The Projects A mysterious agent uncovers valuable truth hidden in journals in a newly abandoned insurgency She's drawn to a particular case where she discovers the diary of Amber a timid young woman that's thrown into a chaotic new world where she learns how to keep her abilities at bay while controlling multiple traits at once Unlike most mods who have one dominant gene Amber has four She is protected by two highly trained partners Sam and Rugh who must put their own troubles aside to keep her unique existence hidden Find out how The Projects started
