Toogood, 1973      Ornamental Conifers for Australian Gardens Raymond J. Rowell, 1996 Introduction to the study of conifers principal characteristics of the conifer families selection of species for garden use explanation of terms Australian climatic zones descriptions of the climatic zones Descriptive list of genera arranged alphabetically with their principal species varieties and or cultivars and notes on their cultivation glossary of technical terms Bibliography Index of plant names      The Garden, 1926      The Complete Guide to Compact Trees and Shrubs Duncan Coombs, 2023-07-20 Featuring over 1 000 different trees and shrubs A common problem that confronts today's gardener garden designer or horticulturalist is a lack of growing space But in recent years plant breeders and nursery owners have recognised this and there is now an inspiring array of compact trees and shrubs to choose from for even the smallest of gardens This book guides the reader through the considerable range of small trees and compact shrubs now available with full details on their cultivation requirements and how to incorporate them into a wider garden design Understand how trees and shrubs are produced and learn how to select with confidence at the plant nursery or garden centre Consider how trees and shrubs may be best chosen and placed when designing a new garden or replanting an established site Browse the book's directories of over 100 separate genera and 1 000 individual plants each with details of hardiness using both RHS and USDA ratings growing requirements height spread and habit main features including flowers foliage and bark and wider garden design considerations      Flowering Plant Index of Illustration and Information, 1979-1981, 1982      The Garden, 1881      The English Flower Garden and Home Grounds William Robinson, 1921 Journal of Horticulture, Cottage Gardener, and Country Gentleman (varies Slightly), 1912      Journal of Horticulture, Cottage Gardener and Home Farmer, 1878      The English Flower Garden and Pleasure Ground William Robinson, 1899      The New Zealand Journal of Agriculture, 1957      Ornamental Conifers Charles Richmond Harrison, 1975      The Art & Craft of Garden Making Thomas Hayton Mawson, 1901      Trees in Towns and Cities Mark Johnston, 2015-08-31 This is the first book on the history of trees in Britain's towns and cities and the people who have planted and cared for them It is a highly readable and authoritative account of the trees in our urban landscapes from the Romans to the present day including public parks private gardens streets cemeteries and many other open spaces It charts how our appreciation of urban trees and woodland has evolved into our modern understanding of the many environmental economic and social benefits of our urban forests A description is also given of the various threats to these trees over the centuries such as pollution damage during the Industrial Revolution and the recent ravages of Dutch elm disease Central and local government initiatives are examined together with the contribution of civic and amenity societies However this historical account is not just a catalogue of significant events but gives a deeper analysis by exploring fundamental issues such as who owned those treed landscapes why they were created and who had access to them The book concludes with the fascinating story of how trees have contributed to efforts to improve urban conditions through various visions of urban green such as the model villages garden cities garden suburbs and the new towns Studies in garden and landscape history have often been preoccupied with those belonging to the rich and powerful This book focuses particularly on working people and the extent to which they have been able to enjoy urban trees and greenspace It will appeal to a general readership especially those with an interest in garden history heritage landscapes and the natural and built environment Its meticulous referencing will also ensure it is much appreciated by students and academics pursuing further reading and research It is written by an internationally renowned arboriculturist who combines a passion for trees with a sound understanding of British social and cultural history
