C. Stead, 2017-12-02 Excerpt from The Empire Builders and Other Poems Said the West to the East of a nation The fruit of your loins am I And I claim no other birthright And I own no other tie But the bond that is fixed between us And the blood that is yours and mine Yet nurture the child that is born you Ere other arms entwine And the West in his youthful vigor Wrought earnestly soon and late As he planted the seeds of Empire And knotted the thongs of Fate And the East in her home at the Gateway Mused long o'er the problem deep For the harvest was ripe to the sickle But the reapers were fast asleep And she said In my western vineyard Where the hope of my future lies About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works      Pamphlets and Reprints William Warner Bishop, 1920      Victor Frankenstein, the

Monster and the Shadows of Technology Robert D. Romanyshyn, 2019-04-25 In Victor Frankenstein the Monster and the Shadows of Technology The Frankenstein Prophecies Romanyshyn asks eight questions that uncover how Mary Shelley's classic work Frankenstein haunts our world Providing a uniquely interdisciplinary assessment Romanyshyn combines Jungian theory literary criticism and mythology to explore answers to the query at the heart of this book who is the monster In the first six questions Romanyshyn explores how Victor s story and the Monster s tale linger today as the dark side of Frankenstein s quest to create a new species that would bless him as its creator Victor and the Monster are present in the guises of climate crises the genocides of our god wars the swelling worldwide population of refugees the loss of place in digital space the Western obsession with eternal youth and the eclipse of the biological body in genetic and computer technologies that are redefining what it means to be human In the book s final two questions Romanyshyn uncovers some seeds of hope in Mary Shelley s work and explores how the Monster s tale reframes her story as a love story This important book will be essential reading for academics and students of Jungian and post Jungian theory literature philosophy and psychology psychotherapists in practice and in training and for all who are concerned with the political social and cultural crises we face today *Catalogue of the Famous Library of Printed Books ...
