Building A Revolution Chinese Architecture Since 1980:

Building A Revolution Charlie Q.L. Xue, 2005-09-01 Building a Revolution Chinese Architecture Since 1980 presents a picture of Chinese architecture in transition as the entire economy shifted from being planned and state controlled to being market led The book also examines the national form and Chinese identity the impact of international architecture housing reform and the emergence of architects in private practice Both celebrated and young Chinese architects are portrayed and the notable buildings in the prosperous coastal cities are highlighted Through this book on modern Chinese architecture the reader will appreciate the influence of globalization and modernization on the most populous country in the world

Constructing a Place of Critical Architecture in China Guanghui Ding, 2016-03-09 For the past 30 years The Chinese journal Time Architecture Shidai Jianzhu has focused on publishing innovative and exploratory work by emerging architects based in private design firms who were committed to new material theoretical and pedagogical practices In doing so this book argues that the journal has engaged in the presentation and production of a particular form of critical architecture described as an intermediate criticality as a response to the particular constraints of the Chinese cultural and political context The journal s publications displayed a dual critique a resistant attitude to the dominant modes of commercial building practice characterised by rapid and large scale urban expansion and an alternative publishing practice focusing on emerging independent architectural practitioners through the active integration of theoretical debates architectural projects and criticisms This dual critique is illustrated through a careful review and analysis of the history and programme of the journal By showing how the work of emerging architects including Yung Ho Chang Wang Shu Liu Jiakun and Urbanus are situated within the context of the journal s special thematic editions on experimental architecture exhibition group design new urban space and professional system the book assesses the contribution the journal has made to the emergence of a critical architecture in China in the context of how it was articulated debated presented and perhaps even produced within the pages of the publication itself The protagonists of critical architecture have endeavoured to construct an alternative mode of form and space with strong aesthetic and socio political implications to the predominant production of architecture under the current Chinese socialist market economy To rebel against certain forms of domination and suppression by capital and power is by no means to completely reject them rather it is to use thos Routledge Handbook of Chinese Architecture Jianfei Zhu, Chen Wei, Li Hua, 2022-11-30 This handbook representing the collaboration of 40 scholars provides a multi faceted exploration of roughly 6 000 years of Chinese architecture from ancient times to the present This volume combines a broad spectrum approach with a thematic framework for investigating Chinese architecture integrating previously fragmented topics and combining the scholarship of all major periods of Chinese history By organizing its approach into five parts this handbook Traces the practices and traditions of ancient China from imperial authority to folk culture Unveils a rich picture of early modern and republican China revealing that modernization was already beginning to emerge Describes the social intellectual ideological and formal enterprises of socialist architecture Frames a window on a complex and changing contemporary China by focusing on autonomy state practices and geopolitics of design ultimately identifying its still evolving position on the world stage Examines the existing cultural and political theories to highlight potential avenues for future transformations in Chinese architecture that also retain Chinese identity Providing a pioneering combination of ancient and modern Chinese architecture in one coherent study this book is a must read for scholars students and educators of Chinese architecture architectural history and theory and the architecture of Asia

Exporting Chinese Architecture Charlie Qiuli Xue,Guanghui Ding,2022-08-18 This book studies the unexplored history of China aided architecture erected in the developing world since the 1950s By 2019 over 1 000 buildings had been delivered to more than 160 countries including parliament houses convention centers stadiums gymnasiums theaters schools hospitals libraries railways and stations These projects which have played a significant role in promoting economic transformation cultural engagement and social and environmental well being have largely been overlooked or misunderstood by the international community Why did China donate so many foreign aid buildings How were these buildings built in the remote land of developing countries with intricate influences and limited resources Have they helped modernize the recipient countries The authors of this book use a wide range of representative projects built in different historic periods and geographical locations as case studies to address the above questions from various perspectives This book fills an enormous gap in modern architecture in China and the world It offers architectural students and scholars in various disciplines the necessary knowledge on diplomatic architecture informs architects the appropriate methods of cross border design and low tech building teaches government officials the best practice of donating and receiving foreign aid buildings and enhances public awareness of cultural diversity in Asia Africa Oceania and Latin America With abundant first hand materials historical pictures and drawings the book is a must read for those who are interested in modern architecture and developmental aid in the world China s architecture abroad notably in Africa and Asia has been perceived with both fascination and anxiety Based on a wealth of sources often difficult to access for scholars from outside China this book links the history and present of China s architectural mobilities in ways that will stimulate new debates in architectural history and urban studies ukasz Stanek Professor of Architectural History The University of Manchester UK
