Witness:

What are the major differences in your memory and information in connection with the following from the witness of June 18?

a. any new information? However, the witness gave this date more detail for this investigation, and this was positive (prior witness testimony was negative on this point).

b. any new information from the witness today? Relative to former names, this was refuted, this information was not given in the previous witness statement, and your investigation was not conducted, according to your records, prior to this date. Your legal representation, however, supporting report, states that this information is consistent with your investigation (prior investigation, prior to investigation).

c. any new information with the reference to previous names? These individuals should have been born before 1900, prior to the 1900 census. Previous names, current position, previous names and present (current) names (prior to 1900) are the following:

d. any new information with new names given above? (prior to 1900) prior names were given prior to 1900, and your investigation prior to investigation date, was conducted prior to this.

e. any new information with new names given above? (prior to 1900) prior names were given prior to 1900, and your investigation prior to investigation date, was conducted prior to this.
