Ojeda,2023-04-11 When you experience as much hurt and pain that I have throughout my life it was very hard for me to expect anything different When I went around family they always found the wrong things to say to me and it didn t bother them at all to say those horrible things out of their mouths I swallowed it and laughed it off sometimes and sometimes I didn t take it so well Because I am working on my healing and forgiving process I stay away from all negativity I need to be in a peaceful environment in order to concentrate on my healing and forgiving process With peace and tranquility comes happiness and a clear mind to think and use my wisdom to heal I have been conducting a serious inventory on my life After I clean out all the unwanted things out of my life the healing and forgiving journey will begin I feel great about this because it s what I need before I can move forward with life Now I am happy I still cry but these are happy tears and that s a fantastic feeling I thank God for allowing my healing and forgiving process to go well I know with all this joy comes belief hope and a great deal of faith One thing I realized through this healing and forgiving process it made my spirit very happy and I was very proud of myself Everyone should learn how to forgive because it will have a great impact on your life
