Boonzaier, 2025-09-25 Showcasing creative decolonial feminist and critical social justice scholarship located in a South African context this book works across modalities and disciplines and within art and activism to challenge hegemonic and oppressive forms of gender and sexuality In the wake of decolonial activism in higher education and civil society since 2015 and the larger struggle for equality and justice Shefer Rustin Boonzaier and their contributors draw primarily from the work of local research and pedagogical projects directed at alternative imaginaries of gender and sexual justice with global import Increasingly scholars are engaging in collaborative dialogical and creative work that foregrounds performance art music crafts literature as well as embodied affective and relational engagements in the making of knowledge This book shares some of these diverse counter hegemonic pedagogies and research approaches that bring an intersectional and decolonial feminist lens to contemporary efforts to decolonise higher education and larger civil society Producing lines of thought and sharing praxis that destabilises disrupts and opens up new possibilities for justice scholarship the book provides a space for going beyond critical reflexivity in research and practice related to gender and sexual inequalities It seeks to make a scholarly intervention founded on rethinking its own grounds through collaborations with knowledges often deployed by those outside the authoritative expert domains of academia aligning it with feminist and decolonial aims This book is a valuable resource for students and scholars of gender sexuality and intersectionality particularly those with a focus on the global South

Beyond Justice Cara C. Putman, 2017-04-04 Hayden is on track to become the youngest partner in her prestigious DC law firm If the case she s just been handed doesn t destroy her first Hayden McCarthy knows firsthand the pain that follows when justice is not served It s why she became an attorney and why she s so driven in her career When she s assigned a wrongful death case against the government she isn t sure if it s the lucky break she needs to secure a partnership or an attempt to make sure she never gets there Further complicating matters is Andrew Wesley her roommate s distractingly attractive cousin But Andrew s father is a congressman and Hayden s currently taking on the government Could the timing be any worse The longer she keeps the case active the higher the stakes become Unknown enemies seem determined to kill the case or her Logic and self preservation indicate she should close the case But how can she when justice is still just beyond her reach *Funeral Services and Memorial Addresses for John M.
