Ambassadors Of Light Living On Light:

Ambassadors of Light Jasmuheen, 2000 Ambassadors of Light is Jasmuheen's tenth book and the follow up to her best seller Living on Light Nutrition for the New Millennium. No doubt this new work will be just as controversial as she continues to challenge the status quo and take the pranic nourishment discussion onto the global stage. In this book Jasmuheen offers practical solutions to world health and world hunger related challenges through her Luscious Lifestyles Program and also effective ways to redirect global resources. This entails an in depth look at global disarmament, the dissolution of prohibition, the forgiveness of Third World debt, holistic education programs and the elimination of the need for personal pharmaceutical use through the elimination of all disease. Ambassadors of Light also looks at the undeniable long term benefits of vegetarianism in relation to health and resource sustainability levels and also at the lifestyles that those who are now free from the need to eat food usually adopt. Jasmuheen compiles statistics from the Light Ambassadors' Global Research Project as well as the research of many others into this phenomena. This book is a collation of research, recipes and recommendations that if adopted will radically alter the path of humankind. Imagine a world without war or hunger or fear. Imagine a world that is disease free and unified where all life is honored. These are the dreams of the Ambassadors of Light. Rays of Living Light on the One Way of Salvation Charles William Penrose, 1904 New Religions Christopher Hugh Partridge, 2004 From Christian Science and the Jehovah's Witnesses to Soka Gakkai, Wicca and Falun Gong, the last century and a half has seen an unprecedented growth of new religious movements, sects and alternative spiritualities. New Religions offers an authoritative and lavishly illustrated guide to more than two hundred of these wildly varied groups and movements. The volume is organized according to an entirely new method of classification which associates movements, sects and spiritualities with the religious traditions from which they arose. Rastafarianism, for example, is shown to have its roots in Christianity while Bahai is an offshoot of Islam. Included are both long established groups like the Seventh Day Adventists and the Hutterites and more recent movements like Santeria, the Unification Church and ISKCON, the Hare Krishnas. In addition to Christianity, Judaism, Islam, Zoroastrianism, Indian Religions and the Religions of East Asia, sections are devoted to movements and groups inspired by Indigenous and Pagan Traditions and by Western Esoteric and New Age Traditions. Particularly fascinating is the discussion of the religious offspring of Modern Western Culture including Scientology, UFO based groups such as the Raelians and even the worship of celebrities like Elvis and Princess Diana. Each entry clearly and concisely explains the history, beliefs and practices and status in the world today of the movement or group in question. Special entries highlight broad topics such as New Religions in China as well as intriguing subjects such as Cargo Cults, Martial Arts, Astrology and Feng Shui. Written by specialists, New Religions is a fascinating and colorful guide to the bewildering array of religious and spiritual options available to the modern seeker. The Galactic Federation of Light Manual W.L.
