Whitehead,2019-12-13 With topics that span the sixteenth century to the present in Latin America the United States Australia the Middle East and West Africa the contributors show how ethnopornography the eroticized observation of the Other for supposedly scientific or academic purposes is fundamental to the creation of race colonialism and archival and ethnographic knowledge A History of Latin America to 1825

,2009-12-21 The updated and enhanced third edition of A History of Latin America to 1825 presents a comprehensive narrative survey of Latin American history from the region's first human presence until the majority of Iberian colonies in America emerged as sovereign states c 1825 This edition features new content on the history of women gender Africans in the Iberian colonies and pre-Columbian peoples Includes more illustrations to aid learning over 50 figures and photographs several accompanied by short essays Concentrates on the colonial period and earlier expanding coverage of the period and incorporating more social and cultural history with the political narrative Part of The Blackwell History of the World Series

The goal of this ambitious series is to provide an accessible source of knowledge about the entire human past for every curious person in every part of the world. It will comprise some two dozen volumes of which some provide synoptic views of the history of particular regions while others consider the world as a whole during a particular period of time. The volumes are narrative in form giving balanced attention to social and cultural history in the broadest sense as well as to institutional development and political change. Each provides a systematic account of a very large subject but they are also both imaginative and interpretative. The Series is intended to be accessible to the widest possible readership and the accessibility of its volumes is matched by the style of presentation and production.

Structures of Feeling in Seventeenth-Century Cultural Expression Susan McClary, 2013-03-04 Between the waning of the Renaissance and the beginning of the Enlightenment many fundamental aspects of human behaviour from expressions of gender to the experience of time underwent radical changes. While some of these transformations were recorded in words others have survived in non verbal cultural media notably the visual arts poetry theatre music and dance. Structures of Feeling in Seventeenth Century Cultural Expression explores how artists made use of these various cultural forms to grapple with human values in the increasingly heterodox world of the 1600s. Essays from prominent historians musicologists and art critics examine methods of non verbal cultural expression through the broad themes of time motion the body and global relations. Together they show that seventeenth century cultural expression was more than just an embryonic stage within Western artistic development. Instead the contributors argue that this period marks some of the most profound changes in European subjectivities.

Peru's Indian Peoples and the Challenge of Spanish Conquest Steve J. Stern, 1993 This second edition of Peru's Indian Peoples and the Challenge of Spanish Conquest includes Stern's 1992 reflections on the ten years of historical interpretation that have passed since the book's original publication setting his analysis of Huamanga in a larger perspective. This book is a monument to both scholarship and comprehension comparable in its treatment of the indigenous peoples after the conquest only to that of Charles Gibson for the Aztecs and perhaps the best volume read by this reviewer in several years. Frederick P. Bowser American Historical Review Peru's Indian Peoples and the Challenge of Spanish Conquest is clearly indispensable reading for Andeanists and highly recommended to ethnohistorians generally. In technical respects it is a job done right and conceptually it stands out as a handsome example of anthropology and history woven into one tight fabric of inquiry.

Cooperation and Empire Tanja Bührer, Flavio Eichmann, Stig Förster, Benedikt Stuchtey, 2017-08-01 While the study of indigenous intermediaries is today the focus of some of the most interesting research in the historiography of colonialism its roots extend back to at least the 1970s. The contributions to this volume revisit Ronald E. Robinson's theory of collaboration in a range of historical contexts by melding it with theoretical perspectives derived from postcolonial studies and transnational history. In case studies ranging globally over the course of four centuries these essays offer nuanced explorations of the varied complex interactions between imperial and local actors with particular attention to
