Ignasi Ribó, 2024-12-15 Posthuman Southeast Asia Ecocritical Entanglements Across Species Boundaries explores the posthuman in Southeast Asia from various ecocritical perspectives and encourages further and deeper entanglements between ecocritics and the bountiful but also threatened multispecies ecologies of this region Southeast Asia is an area where humans and nonhumans have always been deeply entangled from the indigenous and ancient traditions of animism to the variegated and blooming creativity of contemporary literature art music drama film and other media This book expands and enriches Southeast Asian ecocritical scholarship by incorporating posthumanist and new materialist perspectives Across twelve chapters this volume explicitly engages with Southeast Asian texts cultural practices and environmental issues from the broadly conceived theoretical framework of posthuman ecocriticism They provide a uniquely inflected perspective on the literary multimedia and artistic dimensions of contemporary nature cultures in Southeast Asia as part of a concerted effort to disclose the complex entanglements of humans and nonhumans across the region Cultural, Religious and Political

Contestations Fethi Mansouri, 2015-05-06 This book examines the foundations of multiculturalism in the context of migr

societies and from a multi dimensional perspective The work considers the politics of multiculturalism and focuses on how the discourse of cultural rights and intercultural relations in western societies can and should be accounted for at a philosophical as well as performative level Theoretical perspectives on current debates about cultural diversity religious minorities and minority rights emerge in this volume The book draws our attention to the polarised nature of contemporary multicultural debates through a well synthesised series of empirical case studies that are grounded in solid epistemological foundations and contributed by leading experts from around the world Readers will discover a fresh re examination of prominent multicultural settings such as Canada and Australia but also an emphasis on less examined case studies among multicultural societies as with New Zealand and Italy Authors engage critically and innovatively with the various ethical challenges and policy dilemmas surrounding the management of cultural and religious diversity in our contemporary societies Comparative perspectives and a focus on core questions related to multiculturalism not only at the level of practice but also from historical and philosophical perspectives tie these chapters from different disciplines together This work will appeal to a multi disciplinary audience including scholars of political philosophy sociology religious studies and those with an interest in migration culture and religion in contemporary societies Diasporic Poetics Timothy Yu,2021 Studies Asian American Asian Canadian and Asian Australian writing to establish what diasporic poetics might be held in common

Empathy Hoa Pham,2023-04-18 A science fiction novel involving clones a psychic and empathy as a recreational drug We have always been we Then they forced us to become you and I Empathy consists of two stories told in parallel Vuong is one of five Vietnamese clones that have come of age at 25 The Department in Hanoi is allowing them to meet after being separated for twenty years Lian has murdered her foster father after being forced to eat meat Geraldine is dying of cancer in Australia Giang and Khanh were brought up together as twins in New Zealand and are telepathic They have been used for research over their lifetimes Vuong discovers that the data kept on all of them has been used to develop empathy the latest party drug My meets Truong in Berlin who introduces her to empathy which makes the user supersensitive to other people s feelings My s mother is a cleaner at CHESS a multinational chemical company and My comes to believe her mother is ex Stasi and an industrial spy for Vietnamese government My comes down from the drug after hearing about the saturation point when the penetration of empathy would be such that the world s population would be pacified She discovers that Truong is actually the one who is in the pay of the Vietnamese government and her mother is just a cleaner She tries to out the conspiracy in the media but no one believes her Local Organizations and Urban Governance in East and Southeast Asia Benjamin L. Read,Robert Pekkanen,2009-06-02 This edited collection brings together enterprising pieces of new research on the many forms of organization in East and Southeast Asia that are sponsored or mandated by government but engage widespread participation at the grassroots level Straddling the state society divide these organizations play important roles in society and politics yet remain only dimly understood This book shines a spotlight on this phenomenon which speaks to fundamental questions about how such societies choose to organize themselves how institutions of local governance change over time and how individuals respond to and make use of the power of the state The contributors investigate organizations ranging from volunteer based organizations that partner with government in providing services for homeless children to state managed networks of neighborhood or village level associations that perform representative as well as administrative functions and seeks to answer a number of questions When do the vertical top down imperatives of the state stifle horizontal solidarities and when might the two work in harmony Are useful social and administrative purposes served by this type of fusion Does it amplify or merely muffle citizens voices What does it tell us about existing accounts of community social capital synergy complementarity subsidiarity and related concepts Representing seven countries China Japan Vietnam Thailand Indonesia Taiwan and Singapore this volume will be of interest to undergraduates postgraduates and academics in Asian studies political science sociology anthropology development history nonprofit studies Culinary

Discourses in Asian-Australian Writing Astrid Schwegler-Castañer, 2025-03-24 Besides nourishing us food can be used metaphorically to help us understand the complex and abstract concepts through which we negotiate our position in the world we talk about digesting ideas ruminating on a problem or swallowing an insult Building on this premise the book offers a detailed analysis of culinary imagery in twenty first century works from Asian Australian authors like Hsu Ming Teo Alice Pung Simone Lazaroo and Shaun Tan Food is used to embody the abstractions that underlie racial inequalities and conflicts questioning the superficiality of Australia's official multiculturalism and its reproduction of racial and cultural privileges At the same time the analysis highlights the power of these fictional narratives to envision alternative worlds in the hope of gaining common ground for human understanding and solidarity Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Vietnamese

Linguistics Nigel Duffield, Trang Phan, Tue Trinh, 2019-10-09 This volume was originally inspired by a 2017 conference to honour the scholar and linguist Cao Xu n Ha o whose landmark work in many diverse areas of language study established a bridge between traditional Vietnamese scholarship and contemporary theories of grammatical organisation The book offers the reader a closely edited collection of papers representing a wide spectrum of frameworks approaches and methods from traditional fieldwork studies of non standard dialects to corpus based discussions of language and gender to formal syntactic and semantic analyses of key functional morphemes to laboratory experiments and work in first language acquisition Many of the papers present detailed analyses of original data as well as novel treatments of established facts considered together as well as in contrast to one another they make a significant empirical contribution to our understanding of how Vietnamese is structured acquired and put to use The papers should be of value to anyone interested in contemporary approaches to Vietnamese linguistics and Southeast Asian languages more generally Viet Nam Social Sciences , 2001 Lady of the Realm Hoa Pham, 2017 One day there will be peace in Vietnam But not before more war Touched by the Lady of the Realm Li n dreams of bones and bodies under the sea The prescient warnings from the Lady weigh heavily on Li n who is burdened by her inability to save everyone But she knows that the Lady speaks most to those who listen Set against the background of the Vietnam American war we follow Li ns path across five decades that are punctuated by endless war and suffering Yet even in the most desperate of times Li n refuses to be ruled by fear and anger and persists in her hope for a peaceful future But will hope be enough
