France Since The Revolution Texts And Contexts:

France Since the Revolution Claire Gorrara,Rachael Langford,2003-01 France since the Revolution Texts and Contexts introduces students to modern France by exploring the emergence and development of France's five Republics and the values and ideals of French republicanism Starting with the events of the French Revolution of 1789 each of the chapters in the book focuses on a flashpoint in French history the Revolution of 1848 the Paris Commune of 1870 the Dreyfus affair of the 1890s the First and Second World Wars the Brazzaville conference of 1944 May 1968 and the campaign for political parity for women in the 1990s Written by specialists from a range of disciplines including history cultural studies politics and French area studies these chapters address a series of contexts providing an overview of events and a critical interpretation of how such upheavals have affected the history of France's Republics Questions of gender race and class are pivotal to such analyses Complementing this emphasis on contexts are a number of texts available in French and English that give a flavour of how individual French men and women experienced their times As an introductory book for undergraduates France since the Revolution does not assume extensive previous knowledge and contains a complete glossary of the key names used in chapters as well as a time line for reference and suggestions for further reading An important resource for students and teachers alike this accessible book gives its readers a firm base in nineteenth and twentieth century French history and culture from which to develop more specialized interests

Citoyennes and Icaria Diana M. Garno,2005

Citoyennes and Icaria is the historical account of Citoyennes' quest for full equality in seven Icarian colonies in America between the years 1848 and 1898 Their requests for equal opportunities and rights were dismissed by the male Assembly In response the Citoyennes told the governing body that they would not be silenced by a sentiment of equality Icaria was a community where everyone shared all goods in common It was premised on imaginative depictions in a utopian novel Voyage en Icaria by tienne Cabet

1840 Women and men were obliged to marry No dowry was necessary for the state provided housing food material goods medical care funded modern research and lifelong security for all Like men women were educated and could become professionals even doctors or priestesses In the novel the community goals took fifty years to realize The Icarians who came to America worked towards the book's principled social aims The first immigration left for America shortly before the February 23 1848 Revolution The excited Icarian women who planned to leave in March were subsequently addressed as Citoyennes They joined the French feminists' drive to be included in universal suffrage but were not However the Citoyennes anticipated better conditions in the Icarian colony This chronicle follows their efforts to have a political vote which did come in 1879 in one Icarian Branch Although legal and economic problems led to the final dissolution of the community in 1898 the Citoyennes legacy has survived and now is carefully documented in Professor Garno's book The Social Context of Law Sheryl J. Grana, Jane C. Ollenburger, Mark Nicholas, 2002 This book offers an exceptionally straightforward explanation of the intertwining relationship between law and society with emphasis on the relationship of social conditions social ideas and people to the creation interpretation and use of law These three concepts are further used to illustrate how law is formulated in a cross cultural context as well as within the confines of gender race and social class The social context of law The theoretical context of law Cross cultural context of law Types of law Systems of law Practitioners of law The purpose and usefulness of law Gender race social class and law For anyone who desires an understanding of the significant bearing law has on contemporary life and for those considering the legal professions e g pre law paralegal corrections etc

Remembering the Year of the French Guy Beiner, 2007-02-01 Remembering the Year of the French is a model of historical achievement moving deftly between the study of historical events the failed French invasion of the West of Ireland in 1798 and folkloric representations of those events America, History and Life, 2001 Provides historical coverage of the United States and Canada from prehistory to the present Includes information abstracted from over 2 000 journals published worldwide The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2003 French Theory François Cusset, 2008 Explores how the French theory of philosophy which became popular during the last three decades of the twentieth century spread to America and examines the critical practices that French theory inspired Pre-text, Text, Context Robert L. Mitchell, 1980 The nineteenth century in France is a nightmare for literary historians Their thirst for categorization is more easily quenched by prior centuries to which because they seem unified by cohesive preoccupations and common goals such appellations as the Renaissance the Classical Age or le grand siècle and the Enlightenment or Age of Ideas are appropriately applied For the protean nineteenth century for which no such handy tag has been or can be devised is beyond all else distinguished by extreme heterogeneity and eclecticism A period of chaotic social and political instability of scientific and industrial revolution it is in literature a time not of solidarity but of unprecedented individualism Collective social consciousness yields to isolated probings into the uncharted recesses of the human mind and soul and revolt agains standardized even valorized literary practice is seen in such developments as the slow undermining of the accepted literary lexicon and of the qualities of unity clarity and reason and in a radical overhauling of the system of prosody If such diversity precludes coherence in nineteenth century French literature it can itself be recognized as the 2organizing3 element of this literary epoch And it is precisely this paradox that the essays in this volume intend to reflect They are not unified as orthodoxy might dictate by a common approach or theme or author Rather they are marked as was the century that is their context by divergence and variety not harmony and consistency Multiformity in theme is reflected in discussions of such varied topics as pygmalionism allegory mirage self consciousness plagiarism madness feminism the grotesque dance and alchemy which are addressed in turn from a variety of critical approaches thematic intertextual historical stylistic psychocritical sociological and semiotic Ecclecticism indeed has shaped the basic conception of the collection Part 1 examines themes presented as pretext that inform either authorial motivation or the orientation of a text prior to its actual inscription Part 2 approaches the process of writing from the perspective of the text itself And Part 3 is concerned with those spatial temporal and linguistic elements context that surround the literary text A New Philosophy of History Frank Ankersmit,Hans Kellner,2013-06-01 What is history From Thucydides to Toynbee historians and nonhistorians alike have wondered how to answer this question A New Philosophy of History reflects on developments over the last two decades in historical writing not least the renewed interest in the status of narrative itself and the presence of the authorial voice Subjects include the problems of Grand Narrative multiple voices and the personal presence of the historian in his text the ambitions of the French Annales school and the so called Grand Chronicler and the relevance of non literary models museum presentations and picturings regarding historical discourse The range of approaches found in A New Philosophy of History ensures that this book will establish itself as required reading not only for historians but for everyone interested in literary theory philosophy or cultural studies This volume presents essays by Hans Kellner Nancy F Partner Richard T Vann Arthur C Danto Linda Orr Philippe Carrard Ann Rigney Allan Megill Robert Berkhofer Stephen Bann and Frank Ankersmit
