How to Teach Poetry Writing at Key Stage 3 Pie Corbett, 2013-10-23 How to Teach Poetry Writing at Key Stage 3 is a practical manual for teachers to be used directly in the classroom. The book begins with a series of poetry games designed to warm up creativity and strengthen the imagination. These are followed by a series of creative poetry workshops based on the writer's own experience both as a teacher and poet running workshops in schools which focus on developing a poetry base for young writers. This imaginative base provides a range of poetic techniques and gives pupils experience in developing a repertoire of different forms. The book also offers advice on how to organize an effective workshop and demonstrates how to teach poetry writing in a dynamic, creative and imaginative way in relationship with the KS3 national framework. Pie Corbett also provides useful advice on working with visiting poets in school, addresses for relevant web sites, a list of books for follow up work and a glossary of poetic forms and techniques. Workshops include writing from first hand observation, autobiography, valuing our lives, writing about paintings, sculpture and music, surreal boxes and the bag of words, secrets, lies, wishes and dreams, creating images, taking word snapshots, riddles, hiding the truth and red wheelbarrows and messages for mice.

Literary Feminist Ecologies of American and Caribbean Expansionism Christine M. Battista, Melissa R. Sande, 2023-07-13 This book synthesizes ecofeminist theory, American studies and postcolonial theory to interrogate what New Americanist William V. Spanos articulates as the errand into the wilderness: the ethic of Puritanical expansionism at the heart of the U.S. empire that moved westward under Manifest Destiny to colonize Native Americans, non-whites, women and the land. The project explores how the legacy of the errand has been articulated by women writers from the slave narrative to contemporary fiction. Uniting texts across geographical and temporal boundaries, the book constructs a theoretical approach for reading and understanding how women authors craft counter narratives at the intersection of metaphorical and literal landscapes of colonization. It focuses on literature from the United States and the Caribbean, including the slave narratives by Sojourner Truth, Harriet E. Wilson and Harriet Jacobs and contemporary work by Toni Morrison, Maryse Condé, Edwidge Danticat and Native American writer Linda Hogan. It charts the contrast between America's earliest idyllic visions and the subsequent reality: an era of unprecedented violence against women of color and the environment. This study of many canonical writers presents an important and illuminating analysis of American mythologies that continue to impact the cultural landscape today It will be a significant discussion text for students scholars and researchers in environmental humanities ecofeminism and postcolonial studies     The Argosy ,1904     Frank Leslie's Sunday Magazine ,1887
