Come In? Wendy Goodman, 2018-09-25 New York magazine's interiors editor shares some of her most memorable house profiles in this stunning and inspiring visual tour. For May I Come In design editor extraordinaire Wendy Goodman visits seventy homes that express their owners' spirit and passions. In this pantheon, imagination and originality hold sway. Artists and eccentrics are the equals of aristocrats and the mandarins of design. Alba Clemente's closet is a Renaissance theater. Amy Sedaris built a playroom but not for children. Andrew Solomon houses his guests in an igloo. Richard Avedon's private walls were bulletin boards. Kathy Ruttenberg's house is an animal kingdom. Jay Maisel called a former bank with seventy-two rooms home. Every room has a story to tell and a purpose for being. A self-described design hunter, Goodman spent thirty years seeking extraordinary living spaces. In her long career, she has found three things to be true. The first is that curiosity and never giving up will get you everywhere. The second is what Diana Vreeland stated best when she wrote, "Few things are more fascinating than the opportunity to see how other people live during private hours." The third is that houses never lie. These principles underscore her search for individuality, human interest, and authenticity in design. May I Come In is profusely illustrated with superb images by leading interior photographers as well as Goodman's own snapshots and memorabilia related to her quests. It is an irresistible visual record of the art of living by one of its most astute observers. Page after page reveals interiors that practically vibrate with charisma while others wax a poetic minimalism that despite a lack of things, overwhelm with grace. Vogue When it comes to the New York design scene, Wendy Goodman is positively an institution. Town & Country

Canines in the Classroom Michelle A. Rivera, 2004 Humane education teaches respect for all living things to people of all ages. Michelle Rivera shows how raising awareness of the needs of animals and society's responsibility to them can help stop not only violence against animals but also violence against humans. Out of her research and interviews with experts in psychology, education, and sociology, Rivera has created a guide for all who want to begin teaching humane education in their homes, classrooms, communities, churches, and organizations.

Sitting in Bars with Cake Audrey Shulman, 2015-04-07 A sweet indulgence for your mind, heart, and tastebuds now a major motion picture starring Yara Shahidi, Odessa A. Zion, and Bette Midler. Molly Tarlov MTV's Awkward Meeting: Mr. Right is never easy. And in a big city like Los Angeles, it's even harder. So after years of fruitless efforts at finding a soul mate, Audrey Shulman decided to take a different route to a man's heart through his sweet tooth. Whipping up a variety of sinfully delicious cakes, Audrey invaded the savage singles scene, fully armed with butter, sugar, and frosting. Sitting in Bars with Cake recounts Audrey's year spent baking, bar hopping, and offering slices of cake to men in the hope of finding a boyfriend or, at the very least, a date. With 35 inventive recipes, this charming book pairs each cake with a short essay and tongue-in-cheek lesson about picking up boys in bars. This delectable mix of encouragement, anecdote, and cream filling is more than enough reason to start baking and flirting. Winnie Holzman, creator of My So-Called Life. This is a delightfully humble and enthralling tale about cake, bars, and boys, but it's really about life and what it takes to get up every day and be the person you have always wanted to be.
