Chronopoetics Wolfgang Ernst, 2016-03-16 Wolfgang Ernst has demonstrated that the knowledge of time giving chrono poetical media and their temporal essence enriches the tradition of philosophical inquiry into the nature of time This book a translated and abridged edition of Ernst's two major volumes Chronopoetik and Gleichursprünglichkeit undertakes this on three levels a close analysis of time critical moments within media technologies descriptions of how media temporalities affect and disrupt the traditional human sense of time and questioning the traditional position of media time within cultural history The book brings together two fields of inquiry the technological analysis of media time processes and the venerable tradition of philosophical inquiry into the nature of time Ernst argues that the scientific inquiry into the nature of time is enriched by the media technological context The book exposes a media theoretical approach to contemporary media culture that derives from the combination of philosophical reflection on the essence of technology and a close analysis of technological devices themselves Ultimately Ernst addresses a fundamental concern of past contemporary and future media culture the position of technology in culture under the focused perspective of its temporalities

Materializing New Media Anna Munster, 2011-11-15 A significant contribution to investigations of the social and cultural impact of new media and digital technologies

Towards a Digital Epistemology Jonas Ingvarsson, 2021-09-01 This Open Access book explores the concept of digital epistemology In this context the digital will not be understood as merely something that is linked to specific tools and objects but rather as different modes of thought For example the digital within the humanities is not just databases and big data topic modelling and speculative visualizations nor are the objects limited to computer games other electronic works or to literature and art that explicitly relate to computerization or other digital aspects In what way do digital tools and expressions in the 1960s differ to the ubiquitous systems of our time What kind of artistic effects does this generate Is the present theoretical fascination for materiality an effect or a reaction to a digitization Above all how can early modern forms such as the cabinets of curiosity emblem books and the archival principle of pertinence contribute to the analyses of contemporary digital forms
