With over sixty percent new content, this thoroughly updated second edition contains infographics, original activist artwork and a new section on gender, migration and citizenship. The editors have also added chapters on issues surrounding sex work, labour, the politics of veiling, trans and queer identities, Indigenous sovereignty, decolonization, masculinity, online activism and contemporary social justice movements including Black Lives Matter and Idle No More. The multidisciplinary focus and the unique combination of scholarly articles, interviews, fact sheets, reports, blog posts, poetry, artwork and personal narratives reflect the vitality of the field and keep the collection engaging and varied. Feminist Erasures K. Silva, K. Mendes, 2015-01-20 Feminist Erasures presents a collection of essays that examines the state of feminism in North America and Western Europe by focusing on multiple sites such as media, politics and activism. Through individual examples, the essays reveal the extent to which feminism has been made visible and irrelevant in contemporary Western culture.

Women's Studies for the Future Elizabeth Lapovsky Kennedy, Agatha Beins, 2005 Established as an academic field in the 1970s, women's studies is a relatively young but rapidly growing area of study. Not only has the number of scholars working in this subject expanded exponentially, but women's studies has become institutionalized, offering graduate degrees and taking on departmental status in many colleges and universities. At the same time, this field, formed in the wake of the feminist movement, is finding itself in a precarious position in what is now often called a post-feminist society. This raises challenging issues for faculty, students and administrators. How must the field adjust its goals and methods to continue to affect change in the future? Bringing together essays by newcomers as well as veterans to the field, this essential volume addresses timely questions including: Without a unitary understanding of the subject, woman, what is the focus of women's studies? How can women's studies fulfill the promise of interdisciplinarity? What is the continuing place of activism in women's studies? What are the best ways to think about, teach and act upon the intersections of race, class, gender, disability, nation and sexuality? Offering innovative models for research and teaching and compelling new directions for action, Women's Studies for the Future ensures the continued relevance and influence of this developing field.
