An Invitation To Centering Prayer Including An Introduction To Lectio Divina:

An Invitation to Centering Prayer M. Basil Pennington, 2001 At the urging of Pope Paul IV in 1971 the leaders of monastic communities throughout the world were encouraged to help the pilgrim people of God rediscover an ancient way of prayer. This method came to be known as centering prayer. An Invitation to Centering Prayer is for seekers of an enriched prayer life, newcomers to centering prayer and those interested in the intersection between Eastern and Western ways of praying.

Pedagogy of the Bible Dale B. Martin, 2008-01-01 For generations most seminary teaching of the Bible has focused on the historical critical method. While this method has been the standard in almost every seminary curriculum the effects of this approach to Scripture have hardly been examined. From examining the biblical studies courses at ten different seminaries and divinity schools Dale Martin learned what faculties were doing and what students were hearing. This book presents his discoveries offering the best ever inside look at the teaching of the Bible for ministry. Going beyond mere description, Martin argues for a new emphasis on interpreting Scripture within the context of church history and theology. Such a reading would be more theological, more integrated into the whole theological curriculum and more theoretical as it would focus on what is at stake in interpretation; however, Martin surprisingly argues it would be more practical at the same time.

Meditation—The Complete Guide Patricia Monaghan, Eleanor Viereck, 2011 A revised guide to positive transformation through meditation profiles 35 diverse practices from different world regions while explaining their respective histories and virtues in a resource that includes coverage of options ranging from drumming and trance dancing to labyrinth walking and gardening. 28 Different Ways to Pray 28 Different Ways to Pray Spirituality Committee, 2011 This little book aims to introduce a variety of prayer forms, each one being an approach to prayer which various members of the Federal Association of the Order of Malta have found valuable. The forms of prayer include centering prayer, Liturgy of Hours, stations of the cross and novenas.

centering prayer to deal with the demands of hospital ministry. The Christ Chaplain The Way to a Deeper, More Effective Hospital Ministry is an instructive guidebook for health care chaplains who struggle with the high levels of stress that have become commonplace in modern medicine as they work longer hours for lower wages yet get to spend less time with patients. The final book from Father M. Basil Robert Pennington who passed away in 2005 cuts to the real heart of the matter: job burnout by emphasizing not what a chaplain does but what a chaplain is. This unique book teaches chaplains how to achieve better spiritual health by practicing spiritual self care through centering prayer. The Christ Chaplain was written for hospital chaplains who find themselves at the limits of what they can do and what they can endure in living out their calling. Father Pennington ministers to the ministers, helping them to deepen their spiritual lives so they can better provide comfort to the sick and the dying. The book guides hospital chaplains through the Christian mystical tradition via lectio and centering prayer, a method of contemplative prayer rooted in silence that encourages a person to pay attention to God dwelling in the center of his or her being Topics discussed in The Christ Chaplain include the sacred text lectio divina the third step life as a school of love the ministry of presence the power of sacrament sharing the word resting in the presence and much more The Christ Chaplain also includes appendixes that offer sacred reading a prayer for the hospital and suggested readings This powerful book is an invaluable how to guide to better spiritual health for hospital chaplains and other religious personnel including those working in pastoral care departments of seminaries Touching God Brad Tyndall,2014-03-24 The author takes you on a journey to far reaching corners of the world where he drinks tea with loving Sudanese Muslims prays in ancient Coptic churches and whirls with Sufi dervishes in the desert In seeking the mystical in extraordinary places he discovers that an intimate relationship with God can be found in known religious practices The key is not the practice itself but the role of the mind and the heart With the right intention and contemplative approach the religious practice unveils an attentive and loving God The author draws upon Rumi and Hafez in Islam and Saint Teresa of Avila and Thomas Merton in Christianity and many others to discuss the fundamental principles for embracing the Divine By distilling the basic tenets and practices of Islam and Christianity he finds they both hold similar mystical treasures Learn new and ancient methods for meditation prayer chanting prayer beads and pilgrimages Closely examine the Korans incredible poetry and beauty and gain insight into how it has brought millions to God Learn about lectio divina the ancient technique of listening to Gods personal communication with you through the Bible The author provides step by step instructions for you to begin to use these mystical tools By the end of the book youll have taken your own journey into the heart of both Islam and Christianity and found Love
