Josephus: Autobiography Flavius Josephus, 2018-03-25 The Life of Flavius Josephus or simply Vita is an autobiographical text written by Josephus in approximately 94-99 CE where the author for the most part re-visits the events of the Jewish Roman War apparently in response to allegations made against him by Justus of Tiberias. Titus Flavius Josephus was a first-century Romano-Jewish scholar, historian, and hagiographer who was born in Jerusalem (then part of Roman Judea) to a father of priestly descent and a mother who claimed royal ancestry. He initially fought against the Romans during the First Jewish Roman War as head of Jewish forces in Galilee until surrendering in 67 CE to Roman forces led by Vespasian after the six-week siege of Jotapata. After Vespasian became Emperor in 69 CE, he granted Josephus his freedom at which time Josephus assumed the emperor's family name of Flavius. He fully defected to the Roman side and was granted Roman citizenship. Josephus recorded Jewish history with special emphasis on the first century CE and the First Jewish Roman War, including the Siege of Masada. His most important works were The Jewish War (c. 75) and Antiquities of the Jews (c. 94). Situating

Josephus' Life Within Ancient Autobiography Davina Grojnowski, 2023 Davina Grojnowski examines Life, the autobiographical text written by ancient Jewish historian Flavius Josephus from a literary studies perspective and in relation to genre theory. In order to generate a framework of literary practices, Josephus' Life and other texts within Josephus' literary spheres all associated with autobiography are the focus of a detailed literary analysis which compares the texts in terms of established features such as structure, topoi, and subject. This methodological examination enables a better understanding of the literary boundaries of autobiography in antiquity and illustrates Josephus' thought process during the composition of Life. Grojnowski also offers a comparative study of autobiographical practices in Greek and Roman literature, demonstrating the value of passive education supplementing what had been taught actively and its impact on authors and audiences. As a result, she provides insight into the development of literary practices in reaction to various forms of education and subsequently reflects on the religious self-views of authors and audiences. Simultaneously, Grojnowski reacts to current discourses on ancient literary genres and demonstrates that ancient autobiography existed as a teachable literary genre in classical literature.
