Autobiography Of A Face By Lucy Grealy Summary Study Guide:

New Essays on Life Writing and the Body Christopher Stuart, Stephanie Todd, 2009-03-26 In light of materialist revisions of the Cartesian dual self and the increased recognition of memoir and autobiography as a crucial cultural index the physical body has emerged in the last twenty five years as an increasingly inescapable object of inquiry speculation and theory that intersects all of the various subgenres of life writing New Essays on Life Writing and the Body thus offers a timely original focused and yet appropriately interdisciplinary study of life writing This collection brings together new work by established authorities in autobiography such as Timothy Dow Adams G Thomas Couser Cynthia Huff and others along with essays by emerging scholars in the field Subjects range from new interpretations of well known autobiographies by Edith Wharton Gertrude Stein and Lucy Grealy as well as scholarly surveys of more recently defined subgenres such as the numerous New Woman autobiographies of the late 19th century adoption narratives and sibling memoirs of the mentally impaired Due to their wide interdisciplinary focus these essay will prove valuable not only to more traditional literary scholars interested in the classic literary autobiography but also to those in Women s Studies Ethnic and African American Studies as well as in emerging fields such as Disability Studies and Cognitive Studies Levinas and the Other in Narratives of Facial

Disfigurement Gudrun Grabher, 2019-04-30 Offering readings of a range of fictional and biographical texts including work by Richard Selzer Nathaniel Hawthorne Gaston Leroux Willa Cather Natalie Kusz and Lucy Grealy this book examines reactions to facially disfigured people on the basis of Emmanuel Levinas ethics of the face Drawing on Levinas concern with the holistic dimension of the face as an encounter with the other s whole person and the sense of moral obligation that this instils in us a sense that disfigurement disrupts by drawing our attention to the disfigurement as a spectacle and threatening to limit our view of that individual the author explores how we react to the facially disfigured and how we ought to react

Book Review Digest ,1996 Saving Face Heather Laine Talley, 2014-08-15 Winner Body and Embodiment Award presented by the American Sociological Association Imagine yourself without a face the task seems impossible The face is a core feature of our physical identity Our face is how others identify us and how we think of our self Yet human faces are also functionally essential as mechanisms for communication and as a means of eating breathing and seeing For these reasons facial disfigurement can endanger our fundamental notions of self and identity or even be life threatening at worse Precisely because it is so difficult to conceal our faces the disfigured face compromises appearance status and perhaps our very way of being in the world In Saving Face sociologist Heather Laine Talley examines the cultural meaning and social significance of interventions aimed at repairing faces defined as disfigured Using ethnography participant observation content analysis interviews and autoethnography Talley explores four sites in which a range of faces are repaired face transplantation facial feminization surgery the reality show Extreme Makeover and the international charitable organization Operation Smile Throughout she considers how efforts focused on repair sometimes intensify the stigma associated with disfigurement

Drawing upon experiences volunteering at a camp for children with severe burns Talley also considers alternative interventions and everyday practices that both challenge stigma and help those seen as disfigured negotiate outsider status Talley delves into the promise and limits of facial surgery continually examining how we might understand appearance as a facet of privilege and a dimension of inequality Ultimately she argues that facial work is not simply a conglomeration of reconstructive techniques aimed at the human face but rather that appearance interventions are increasingly treated as lifesaving work Especially at a time when aesthetic technologies carrying greater risk are emerging and when discrimination based on appearance is rampant this important book challenges us to think critically about how we see the human face

Undoing Ableism Susan Baglieri, Priya Lalvani, 2019-08-30 Undoing Ableism is a sourcebook for teaching about disability and anti ableism in K 12 classrooms Conceptually grounded in disability studies critical pedagogy and social justice education this book provides both a rationale as well as strategies for broad based inquiries that allow students to examine social and cultural foundations of oppression learn to disrupt ableism and position themselves as agents of social change Using an interactive style the book provides tools teachers can use to facilitate authentic dialogues with students about constructed meanings of disability the nature of belongingness and the creation of inclusive communities Auto/biography Studies
