Mission Unaccomplished Alan Nadel, 2025 Throughout his career prominent film scholar Alan Nadel has explored the idea of cultural narratives and how every social unit sees and explains the world through the stories we tell In this book he identifies how the war film genre has changed in the 21st century after 9 11 and more specifically Bush's announcement of Mission Accomplished He explains how the traditional war film narrative in which soldiers have a specific mission or objective to achieve in battle changed to one in which war is treated as a daily occupation with no larger mission that will lead even in the long run to peace He examines how films such as Saving Private Ryan at the end of the 20th century have morphed into films such as Jarhead The Hurt Locker and The Green Zone With the indefinite and ill planned occupation of Afghanistan and Iraq including the privatization of many military services through contractors this new situation has led to films in which we follow soldiers day to day lives as they go through their duties or even after they've come home as in American Sniper Another change in war films during the Global War on Terror puts the emphasis on just surviving and getting out such as in Hacksaw Ridge which even carries over to films about for example WWII such as Dunkirk Again combatants have no specific goal other than escaping or helping others to escape or just surviving long enough to go home Nadel shows how this change has also affected non war films such as Sully Captain Phillips Deepwater Horizon and Get Out and even the television series Lost Nadel deftly moves between political history and film analysis with this wide ranging lucid examination of the changing nature and role of war films

Embedded Wesley R. Gray, 2009-04-01 In his November 19 2005 presidential address President George W Bush summarized U S military policy as Our situation can be summed up this way as the Iraqis stand up we will stand down EMBEDDED offers a firsthand account by a young Marine military advisor serving on the frontlines with the Iraqi Army of the effectiveness of America's efforts to help the Iraqis stand on their own As a Division I track athlete and a magna cum laude graduate of the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School Wes Gray was given a full scholarship to the Ph D program in finance at the University of Chicago the top ranked program in the world However after passing his comprehensive exams and while weighing offers from Wall Street he had an epiphany the right thing to do before taking on the challenges of the business world was to serve his nation and fulfill a lifelong dream of becoming a United States Marine In 2006 1st Lt Gray was deployed as a Marine Corps military advisor to live and fight with an Iraqi Army battalion for two hundred and ten days in the Haditha Triad a small population center in the dangerous and austere al Anbar Province of western Iraq What he encountered was an insurgent fire pit recently traumatized by the infamous Haditha Massacre in which 24 Iraqi civilians men women and children were shot at close range by U S Marines at close range in retaliation for the death of a Marine lance corporal in a roadside bombing Despite the tensions triggered by the shootings Gray was able to form a bond with the Iraqi soldiers because he had an edge that very few U S service members possess 3 4 the ability to communicate because of his proficiency in Iraqi Arabic His language skills and deep understanding of Iraqi culture were quickly recognized by the Iraqi soldiers who considered him an Arab brother and fondly named him Jamal By the end of his advisor tour he was a legend within the Iraqi Army During his time in Iraq Wes kept a detailed record of his observations experiences and interviews with Iraqi citizens and soldiers in vivid and brutally honest detail Ranging from tension filled skirmishes against the insurgents to insights into the dichotomy between American and Iraqi cultures he offers a comprehensive portrait of Iraq and the struggles of its people and soldiers to stand up and make their country a nation once again His book is a Marine intelligence officer s compelling report about the status and prospects of America s strategy for success in Iraq

Borderland War Daniel Thompson,2011-11-11 After suffering the loss of his companion at a beach resort in Cancun Master Sergeant Hector Ramirez joins Sergeant First Class Leo Rivaldo and Sergeant Major Tom Reed on a mission to bring down La Familia and the cartels of Juarez and Tijuana The Wild One of La Familia was responsible for the attack in Cancun to eliminate a lower echelon drug trafficker which resulted in the unintended killing of Hector's love interest. In doing so he has gained himself enemies like he has never known intentional or not. Sergeants Ramirez and Rivaldo embark on a covert mission to use their native language and understanding of the ways of their homeland to take over drug trafficking across the U.S. Border and use the profits against those who so impudently violate our border. U.S. President David Hume, a former Ranger and associate of Sergeant Ramirez, learns of the latest in a series of cartel bombings that have cost the lives of American tourists. He is less than pleased with customary government channels in bringing an end to American deaths as rival Mexican drug cartels fight over trafficking illicit drugs. He decides to call upon Ramirez and a fellow Ranger to infiltrate a local Matamoros cartel with a plan to use confiscated cash to bring down La Familia Mexico's largest drug cartel. Manuel Marzano, kingpin of the violent La Familia cartel, has unknowingly gained himself a team of adversaries like he has never seen. The fight to overtake his reign of terror on Mexico's border towns and popular tourist destinations has begun. A cruise ship fire in Ensenada results in loss of American lives. President Hume discovers that the tragedy was caused by The U.S. State Department's policy to force cruise lines to use local Mexican port contractors for services including refueling and fire protection. The tragedy becomes a major news story as the L.A. media hear of the fire and U.S. State Department attempts to cover up the ongoing disaster in order to save the Mexican tourist based economy. President Hume asks the Special Operations Command to step up their mission and move in on La Familia. Ramirez proposes improved logistics in getting La Familia's product across the border. The greedy Marzano accepts the proposal and unwittingly introduces U.S. undercover Special Forces soldiers into his cartel operation. Marzano makes an attempt on the life of a reform candidate for a northern border region of Mexico. President Hume saves the life of the man who he intends to install at the head of the Mexican government as part of his long term solution to drug violence. Hector is introduced to Marzano's wife, the beautiful Carmella Marzano, and a local indigenous woman who he falls in love with. Hector suspects that Marzano's wife is being held against her will and realizes that she is the resource he is looking for to carry out a plan of taking over La Familia. Ramirez assassinates Marzano and places his wife at the head of the cartel. He turns his attention to violence in Juarez and Tijuana. Hector marries and retires from the Army and returns to his native village in the rain forests near Tampico, Mexico. President Hume is left with the realization that he must convince his government and the American people that the answer to stopping drug war violence lies in bringing an end to the demand for drugs on his side of the border.
