American Cinema of the 2010s Dennis Bingham, 2021-12-10 The 2010s might be remembered as a time of increased polarization in American life The decade contained both the Obama era and the Trump era and as the nation s political fissures widened so did the gap between the haves and have nots Hollywood reflected these divisions choosing to concentrate on big franchise blockbusters at the expense of mid budget films while new players like Netflix and Amazon offered fresh opportunities for low budget and independent filmmakers As the movie business changed films ranging from American Sniper to Get Out found ways to speak to the concerns of a divided nation The newest installment in the Screen Decades series American Cinema in the 2010s takes a close look at the memorable movies visionary filmmakers and behind the scenes drama that made this decade such an exciting time to be a moviegoer Each chapter offers an in depth examination of a specific year covering a wide variety of films from blockbuster superhero movies like Black Panther and animated films like Frozen to smaller budget biopics like I Tonya and horror films like Hereditary This volume introduces readers to a decade in which established auteurs like Quentin Tarantino were joined by an exceptionally diverse set of new talents taking American cinema in new directions The Virginia Quarterly Review , 2020 American Cinema in the Shadow of 9/11 Terence McSweeney, 2016-12-05 American Cinema in the Shadow of 9 11 is a ground breaking collection of essays by some of the foremost scholars writing in the field of contemporary American film Through a dynamic critical analysis of the defining films of the turbulent post 9 11 decade the volume explores and interrogates the impact of 9 11 and the War on Terror on American cinema and culture In a vibrant discussion of films like American Sniper 2014 Zero Dark Thirty 2012

The New American War Film Robert Burgoyne, 2023-10-10 A look at how post 9 11 cinema captures the new face of war in the twenty first century While the war film has carved out a prominent space within the history of cinema the twenty first century has seen a significant shift in the characteristics that define it Serving as a roadmap to the genre s contemporary modes of expression The New American War Film explores how in the wake of 9 11 both the nature of military conflict and the symbolic frameworks that surround it have been dramatically reshaped Featuring in depth analyses of contemporary films like The Hurt Locker Zero Dark Thirty Eye in the Sky American Sniper and others The New American War Film details the genre s turn away from previously foundational themes of heroic sacrifice and national glory instead emphasizing the procedural violence of advanced military technologies and the haptic damage inflicted on individual bodies Unfolding amid an atmosphere of profound anxiety and disillusionment the new American war film demonstrates a breakdown of the prevailing cultural narratives that had come to characterize conflict in the previous century With each chapter highlighting a different facet of war s cinematic representation The New American War Film charts society s shifting attitudes toward violent conflict and what is broadly considered to be its acceptable repercussions Drawing attention to changes in gender dynamics and the focus on war s lasting psychological effects within these recent films Robert Burgoyne analyzes how cinema both reflects and reveals the makeup of the national imaginary
