

and the 1990s. Although the environmental movement has been a driving force in many countries, the impact of environmentalism on the economy has been limited. In some cases, environmental policies have led to job losses and economic decline. In others, they have been successful in creating new industries and job opportunities. The environmental movement has also been successful in raising awareness of environmental issues and in encouraging governments and businesses to take action to address them. The movement has been instrumental in pushing for policies that protect the environment and promote sustainable development. It has also been successful in raising awareness of the impact of environmental degradation on human health and well-being. The environmental movement has been a powerful force for change, and its influence is likely to continue to grow in the future.
