American thinker Ren Girard 1923 2015 has been one of the towering figures of the humanities in the last half century The title of Ren Girard's first book offered his own thesis in summary form romantic lie and novelistic truth mensonge romantique et vrit romanesque And yet for a thinker whose career began by an engagement with literature it came as a shock to some that in La Conversion de l'art Girard asserted that the novel may be an outmoded form for revealing humans to themselves However Girard never specified what if anything might take the place of the novel This collection of essays is one attempt at answering this question by offering a series of analyses of films that aims to test mimetic theory in an area in which relatively little has so far been offered Does it make any sense to talk of vrit filmique In addition Mimetic Theory and Film is a response to the widespread objection that there is no viable Girardian aesthetics One of the main questions that this collection considers is can we develop a genre specific mimetic analysis of film and are we able to develop anything approaching a Girardian aesthetic Each of the contributors addresses these questions through the analysis of a film

Difference, Dialogue, and Development Lakshmi Bandlamudi, 2015-12-22 Difference Dialogue and Development is an in depth exploration of the collected works of Mikhail Bakhtin to find relevance of key concepts of dialogism for understanding various aspects of human development. Taking the reality of differences in the world as a given, Bandlamudi argues that such a reality necessitates dialogue and actively responding to that necessity leads to development. The varied works of Bakhtin that span several decades, passing through the most tumultuous period in Russian history, are brought under one banner of three D's: Difference, Dialogue, and Development, and the composite features of the three D's emerge as leitmotifs in every chapter.

Bakhtin/“Bakhtin” Peter Hitchcock, 1998. Offering original research on Mikhail Bakhtin by leading scholars in the field, this special issue of SAQ both celebrates the recent centennial of Bakhtin's birth and elaborates significant new strains in Bakhtinian thinking. The distinction between Bakhtin and Bakhtin is a measure of the incommensurable space between the biographically verifiable figure and the one who emerges from contemporary critical applications of his work. While the inevitability of this space must be acknowledged, so too must its implications for a politics of culture where theory is concerned. Can there be a real Bakhtin and can this one simply be the relevant Bakhtin? Is the deified Bakhtin just a reified Bakhtin? Exploring both the dynamism of Bakhtin versus Bakhtin and the dynamics of possible Bakhtins, the contributors tackle this theorist's range of shifting shapes from the carnival messianistic and the chronotopic through the philosophic and the ideologic to the applied Bakhtin of the social sciences. Bakhtin's texts are examined in the context of work by such disparate figures as Ernst Cassirer and Rudolph Rocker, while various aspects of the academic Bakhtin industry are examined, including the will to mythology by anthology and the inequities of a world market in ideas exemplified by the resource gap between Russian and Western scholarship. The state of the archive is assessed by both UK Bakhtin Centre Director David Shepherd and Russian Bakhtin Archivist Nikolai Pan'kov. Throughout the issue, which is framed by Peter Hitchcock's introductory polemics and Michael Holquist's afterword, author and archive are continually deconstructed and reconstructed.

Digest, 1918 Rethinking Bakhtin Gary Saul Morson, Caryl Emerson, 1989. Employer sponsored deferred compensation and welfare benefit plans play major roles today in employee compensation packages. As the popularity of these plans has increased, so has the complexity of the law in this area. This volume is designed to help employee benefits professionals fit deferred compensation arrangements and welfare benefits into employee compensation packages so as to maximize the ultimate financial benefits and minimize the related costs. Special attention is devoted to the tax aspects of such arrangements due to the complexity and potential impact of the Internal Revenue Code.

These essays extend Bakhtin's concepts in important new directions and challenge Bakhtin's own use of his most cherished ideas. Four sets of paired essays explore the theory of parody, the relation of de Man's poetics to Bakhtin's dialogics, Bakhtin's approach to Tolstoy and ideological literature generally, and the dangers of dialogue not only in practice but also as an ideal.
