Stand Up And Be Men:

Punching Up in Stand-Up Comedy Rashi Bhargava, Richa Chilana, 2022-12-30 Punching Up in Stand Up Comedy explores the new forms voices and venues of stand up comedy in different parts of the world and its potential role as a counterhegemonic tool for satire commentary and expression of identity especially for the disempowered or marginalised. The title brings together essays and perspectives on stand up and satire from different cultural and political contexts across the world which raise pertinent issues regarding its role in contemporary times especially with the increased presence of OTT platforms and internet penetration that allows for easy access to this art form. It examines the theoretical understanding of the different aspects of the humour aesthetics and politics of stand up comedy as well as the exploration of race gender politics and conflicts urban culture and LGBTQ identities in countries such as Indonesia Finland France Iran Italy Morocco India and the USA. It also asks the question whether along with contesting and destabilising existing discursive frameworks and identities a stand up comic can open up a space for envisaging a new social cultural and political order. The Preacher and His Work Henry Graham, 1906 Can I Get an Amen? Darren F Longuemire Sr., 2019-03-31 Hello Readers To God be the glory I would like to take a little time to tell you about this book that I have written and how God led me to write it. Over the years of growth I can truly say I have developed a personal relationship with Christ. He speaks to me he tells me things that only Christ could tell me. He often gives me messages in the form of poems. That only God can do. God gives me the words and I simply write them down. I remember the first poem Christ gave me. It was a home going poem for my father. On June 19 2007 my father went to glory. I wanted to say something about my father publicly but I had a fear of speaking before crowds. There was something about speaking before a crowd that always gave me a feeling of fear. I couldn't let this fear stop me from letting the world know how I felt about this great man. I needed to write something down to let people know how I felt about him. I experienced a lot of sleepless nights trying to think of words worthy of my feelings for him. Two days before the home going I was awakened at 2:00 a.m. by what I believe to be the Holy Spirit. I went into another room and within an hour I had written a poem that I felt was worthy enough to tell. The church clerk read the poem and mentioned that I wrote it. I was complimented for the words I wrote. All I could say was to God be the glory. Here is the first poem I wrote entitled Greet Us with A Smile Good night Daddy we'll see you in a while. When we get to heaven you'll greet us with a smile. Mama Kenny Bruce and the rest We want to thank you Daddy for giving us your best. Go ahead and sleep Daddy. Go ahead and rest. We'll see you in the morning though I must confess We're really going to miss you but only for a while. Because when we get to heaven you'll greet us with a smile. Thank you Jesus for letting us borrow him this long. Help us to understand that it was time for him to go home But we all know it s only for a while Because when we get to heaven you ll greet us with a smile With all the love that a family could give You ll always be with us because in us you ll always live Go ahead and sleep Daddy but only for a while Because when we get to heaven I know you ll greet us with a smile In loving memory of John Edwin Longuemire Sr May 31 1926 June 19 2007 A journal or historical account of the life, travels, sufferings, Christian experiences and labour of love in the work of the ministry ... of ...
