

LEARN ABOUT YOUR RIGHTS!

The UN Convention on the Rights of the Child

22

If you have come to a new country because your home country was unsafe, you have the right to protection and support. You have the same rights as children born in that country.

23

If you have any kind of disability, you should have special care, support and education so that you can lead a full and independent life and participate in the community to the best of your ability.

33

The Government should provide ways of protecting you from using, producing or distributing dangerous drugs.

24

You have the right to good quality healthcare (i.e. medicine, hospitals, health professionals). You have the right to clean water, nutritious food, a clean environment and health education so that you can stay healthy. Rich countries should help poorer countries achieve this.

34

You should be protected from sexual exploitation and abuse, including prostitution and involvement in pornography.

25

If you are looked after by local authorities or institutions rather than by your parents, you should have your situation reviewed regularly to make sure you have good care and treatment.

36

You should be protected from any activities that could harm your development and wellbeing.

26

The society in which you live should provide you with benefits of social security that help you develop and live in good conditions (i.e. education, culture, nutrition, health, social welfare). The Government should provide extra money for the children of families in need.

37

If you break the law, you should not be treated cruelly. You should not be put in prison with adults and should be able to stay in contact with your family. The death penalty and life sentences in prison are not allowed for children.

27

You should live in good conditions that help you develop physically, mentally, spiritually, morally and socially. The Government should help families who cannot afford to provide this.

DO YOU KNOW?
Most governments have agreed in an Optional Protocol to the CRC that children under 18 should not be allowed to join the army.

28

You have the right to education. Primary education should be free and required. Secondary education should be accessible to every child. Higher education should be available to everyone on the basis of capacity. School discipline should respect your rights and dignity.

38

If you are under 15, governments should not allow you to join the army or take any direct part in war. Children in war zones should receive special protection.

30

You have a right to learn and use the traditions, religion and language of your family, whether or not these are shared by most people in your country.

39

You should receive special care if you were neglected or abused, were a victim of exploitation or war, or were put in prison.

29

Education should develop your personality, talents, mental and physical abilities. It should prepare you for active participation in a free society, and encourage you to respect your own culture and other people's culture.

40

If you are accused of breaking the law, you must be treated in a way that respects your dignity. You should receive legal help and only be given a prison sentence for most serious crimes.

31

You have the right to rest, have leisure, play and participate in cultural and artistic activities.

41

If the laws in your country are better for children than the articles of the Convention, then those laws should be followed.

32

The Government should protect you from work that is dangerous to your health or development, that interferes with your education or that might lead people to take advantage of you.

42

The Government should make the Convention known to all parents, institutions and children.

Child Marriage, Rights and Choice Hoko

Horii, 2021-11-18 This book addresses the issue of agency in relation to child marriage In international campaigns against child marriage there is a puzzle of agency While international human rights institutions celebrate girls exercise of their agency not to marry they do not recognize their agency to marry Child marriage usually defined as any formal marriage or informal union where one or both of the parties are under 18 years of age is normally considered as forced which is to say that it is assumed that are not capable of consenting to marriage This book however re examines this assumption through a detailed socio legal examination of child marriage in Indonesia Eliciting the multiple competing frameworks according to which child marriage takes place the book considers the complex reasons why children marry Structural explanations such as lack of opportunities and oppressive social structures are important but not exhaustive explanations Exploring the subjective reasons by listening to children s perspectives their stories show that many of them decide to marry for love desire to belong to the community and for new opportunities and hopes The book then demonstrates how the child marriage framework and indeed the human rights framework in general is constructed on too narrow a vision of human agency One that cannot but fail to respect and promote the agency of all regardless of gender race religion and age This book will be of interest to scholars students and practitioners in the areas of children s rights legal anthropology and socio legal studies

Child Marriage in Humanitarian Settings in the Arab Region Samira Atallah, 2016-11-15 This study tackles the issue of female child marriage in the Arab region particularly in conflict and humanitarian settings It explores the causes of this problem with a distinction between such structural determinants as family and community relations and gender roles that have long been present in many Arab countries and such contextual determinants as instability displacement and extreme poverty It also investigates the economic and health effects of child marriage for young brides their children and their communities especially in post conflict contexts The study also provides an overview of national obligations with regard to preventing child marriage as stipulated by international instruments and humanitarian laws It concludes with policy recommendations to address the multifaceted dimensions of child marriage and its implications for the rights of the girl child

Routledge Handbook of Childhood Studies and Global Development Tatek Abebe, Anandini Dar, Karen Wells, 2024-08-28 The Routledge Handbook of Childhood Studies and Global Development explores how global development agendas and processes of economic development influence children's lives It demonstrates that children are not only the frequent targets or objects of development but that they also shape and influence processes of economic political and sociocultural development The handbook makes the case for the importance of placing children at the heart of development debates and demonstrates how researchers policymakers and practitioners can engage children in development Through reports on field research as well as a critical engagement with theories in development studies and childhood studies contributors contest normative assumptions about childhood and global development They tease out and tease apart the complex social historical cultural economic epidemiological ecological geopolitical and institutional processes transforming what it means to be young in the world today Showcasing research from both established scholars and early career researchers and with particular prominence given to the work of authors from the global south this book will be an essential reference for policymakers practitioners and for researchers and students across childhood studies education geography sociology and global development

Childhoods in India T. S. Saraswathi, Shailaja Menon, Ankur Madan, 2017-08-31 This book highlights the significance of an interdisciplinary approach to understanding children and childhoods in the Indian context While it is recognised that multiple kinds of childhoods exist in India policy and practice approaches to working with children are still based on a singular model of the ideal child rooted in certain Western traditions The book challenges readers to go beyond the acknowledgement of differences to evolving alternate models to this conception of children and childhoods Bringing together well known scholars from history politics sociology child development paediatrics and education the volume represents four major themes the history and politics of childhoods deconstructing childhoods by analysing their representations in art mythology and culture in India selected facets of childhoods as constructed through education and schooling and understanding issues related to law policy and practice as they pertain to children and childhoods This important book will be useful to scholars and researchers of education especially those working in the domains of child
