Arts Hellenized East Metalwork Pre Islamic:

Arts of the Hellenized East Martha L Carter, 2015-11-24 A sumptuous survey of silver and other precious objects originating over several centuries in the Middle East and Mediterranean from the prestigious al Sabah Collection. The al Sabah Collection Kuwait houses one of the world's most spectacular collections of ancient silver vessels and other objects made of precious metals. Dating from the centuries following Alexander the Great's conquest of Iran and Bactria in the middle of the 4th century BCE up to the advent of the Islamic era, the beautiful bowls, drinking vessels, platters and other objects in this catalogue suggest that some of the best Hellenistic silverwork was not made in the Greek heartlands but in this eastern outpost of the Seleucid empire. Martha L Carter connects these far flung regions from northern Greece to the Hindu Kush tracing the common cultural threads that link their diverse geography and people. The last part of the catalogue by Prudence O Harper deals with an important group of Sasanian silver vessels and gems and some other rarities produced in the succeeding centuries for Hunnish and Turkic patrons. The catalogue is accompanied by an essay on the technology of ancient silver production by Pieter Meyers who has performed a number of scientific tests on the objects including a new metallurgical analysis that may help to identify their geographical origins.

Lightfoot, Carmelo Malacrino, Joan R. Mertens, Olga Palagia, Dominique Robcis, Susan I. Rotroff, Andreas Scholl, Agnes Schwarzmaier, R. R. R. Smith, Jeffrey Spier, Karen Stamm, Lillian Bartlett Stoner, Alessandro Viscogliosi, Ute Wartenberg, Mark Wypyski, Paul Zanker, 2019-04-29 This handsome newly designed addition to The Metropolitan Museum of Art's symposia series furthers the study of one of the most influential but less known periods of Greek art and culture. It is based on papers given at a two day scholarly symposium held in conjunction with the award winning exhibition Pergamon and the Hellenistic Kingdoms of the Ancient World on view at the Metropolitan in 2016. The twenty diverse essays exemplify the international scope of the Hellenistic arts which cover the three centuries between the death of Alexander the Great in 323 B.C. and the suicide of Cleopatra in 30 B.C. Subjects range from twenty first century approaches to museum displays of archaeological material to the circulation of artists and works of art throughout the Mediterranean and the influence of Hellenistic art and its legacy in the ancient Roman world. Among the topics discussed are aspects of royal self presentation and important elements of iconography and style in coins, gems, mosaics, sculpture, vessels and wall paintings in mediums including bronze, faience, glass, marble, silver and terracotta. Authored by a number of internationally renowned scholars the essays in this volume highlight the holdings of the Metropolitan and markedly demonstrate the artistic innovations and technical mastery of Hellenistic artists offering new insights into the vitality and complexity of Hellenistic art.

Problems of Chronology in Gandhāran Art Wannaporn Rienjang,Peter Stewart,2018-03-14 Since the beginning of Gandhāran studies in the nineteenth century chronology has been one of the most significant challenges to the understanding of Gandhāran art Many other ancient societies including those of Greece and Rome have left a wealth of textual sources which have put their fundamental chronological frameworks beyond doubt In the absence of such sources on a similar scale even the historical eras cited on inscribed Gandh ran works of art have been hard to place Few sculptures have such inscriptions and the majority lack any record of find spot or even general provenance Those known to have been found at particular sites were sometimes moved and reused in antiquity Consequently the provisional dates assigned to extant Gandh ran sculptures have sometimes differed by centuries while the narrative of artistic development remains doubtful and inconsistent Building upon the most recent cross disciplinary research debate and excavation this volume reinforces a new consensus about the chronology of Gandh ra bringing the history of Gandh ran art into sharper focus than ever By considering this tradition in its wider context alongside contemporary Indian art and subsequent developments in Central Asia the authors also open up fresh questions and problems which a new phase of research will need to address Problems of Chronology in Gandh ran Art is the first publication of the Gandh ra Connections project at the University of Oxford s Classical Art Research Centre which has been supported by the Bagri Foundation and the Neil Kreitman Foundation It presents the proceedings of the first of three international workshops on fundamental questions in the study of Gandh ran art held at Oxford in March 2017 The Cesnola Collection of Cypriot Art Christopher S. Lightfoot,2017-12-22 The Cesnola Collection of antiquities from Cyprus preserves the island s artistic traditions from prehistoric through Roman times and represents the first large group of ancient Mediterranean works to enter the museum s collection This publication which focuses on Ancient Glass and is the third volume in a series aimed at publishing the collection in its entirety This catalogue contains descriptions and illustrations of 520 glass vessels and objects Although the majority of the glass is Roman the scope of the collection extends from the Late Bronze Age through the end of antiquity ca 1500 B C A D 600 It is the first attempt in over a century to provide a detailed account of the ancient glass found on Cyprus by Cesnola Pergamon and the Hellenistic Kingdoms of the Ancient World Carlos A. Picón,Seán Hemingway,2016-04-18 The Hellenistic period the nearly three centuries between the death of Alexander the Great in 323 B C and the suicide of the Egyptian queen Kleopatra VII the famous Cleopatra in 30 B C is one of the most complex and exciting epochs of ancient Greek art The unprecedented geographic sweep of Alexander s conquests changed the face of the ancient world forever forging diverse cultural connections and exposing Greek artists to a host of new influences and artistic styles This beautifully illustrated volume examines the rich diversity of art forms that arose through the patronage of the royal courts of the Hellenistic kingdoms placing special emphasis on Pergamon capital of the Attalid dynasty which ruled over large parts of Asia Minor With its long history of German led excavations Pergamon provides a superb paradigm of a Hellenistic capital appointed with important civic institutions a great library theater gymnasium temples and healing center that we recognize today as central features of modern urban life The military triumphs of Alexander and his successors led to the expansion of Greek culture out from the traditional Greek heartland to the Indus River Valley in the east and as far west as the Strait of Gibraltar These newly established Hellenistic kingdoms concentrated wealth and power resulting in an unparalleled burst of creativity in all the arts from architecture and sculpture to seal engraving and glass production Pergamon and the Hellenistic Kingdoms of the Ancient World brings together the insights of a team of internationally renowned scholars who reveal how the art of Classical Greece was transformed during this period melding with predominantly Eastern cultural traditions to yield new standards and conventions in taste and style and exchanges of influence with ancient Greece and the Roman Empire The founding of the first Persian Empire by the Achaemenid king Cyrus the Great in the sixth century BCE established one of the greatest world powers of antiquity Extending from the borders of Greece to northern India Persia was seen by the Greeks as a vastly wealthy and powerful rival and often as an existential threat When the Macedonian king Alexander the Great finally conquered the Achaemenid Empire in 330 BCE Greek culture spread throughout the Near East but local dynasties first the Parthian 247 BCE 224 CE and then the Sasanian 224 651 CE reestablished themselves The rise of the Roman Empire as a world power quickly brought it too into conflict with Persia despite the common trade that flowed through their territories Persia addresses the political intellectual religious and artistic relations between Persia Greece and Rome from the seventh century BCE to the Arab conquest of 651 CE Essays by international scholars trace interactions and exchanges of influence With more than three hundred images this richly illustrated volume features sculpture jewelry silver luxury vessels coins gems and inscriptions that reflect the Persian ideology of empire and its impact throughout Persia's own diverse lands and the Greek and Roman spheres This volume is published to accompany a major international exhibition presented at the Getty Villa from April 6 to August 8 2022
