Art Freedom Dialectics Democratic Existence:

The Art of Freedom Juliane Rebentisch, 2016-06-27 The concept of democratic freedom refers to more than the kind of freedom embodied by political institutions and procedures Democratic freedom can only be properly understood if it is grasped as the expression of a culture of freedom that encompasses an entire form of life Juliane Rebentisch's systematic and historical approach demonstrates that we can learn a great deal about the democratic culture of freedom from its philosophical critics From Plato to Carl Schmitt the critique of democratic culture has always been articulated as a critique of its aestheticization Rebentisch defends various phenomena of aestheticization from the irony typical of democratic citizens to the theatricality of the political as constitutive elements of democratic culture and the notion of freedom at the heart of its ethical and political self-conception This work will be of particular interest to students of Political Theory Philosophy and Aesthetics

Democracy in the Political Present Isabell Lorey, 2022-11-15

Presentist democracy is without a people and without nation Rather than regimes of borders and migration its borders are sexism and racism homo and transphobia colonialism and extractivism In the midst of the crises and threats to liberal democracy Isabell Lorey develops a democracy in the present tense one which breaks open political certainties and linear concepts of progress and growth Her queer feminist political theory formulates a fundamental critique of masculinist concepts of the people representation institutions and the multitude In doing so she unfolds an original concept of a presentist democracy based on care and interrelatedness on the irreducibility of responsibilities one which cannot be conceived of without social movements past struggles and current practices

Aesthetic Theory Across the Disciplines Max Ryyänen, Zoltán Somhegyi, 2023-11-13 What is aesthetics How is it related to other disciplines The chapters of this book examine the history theoretical conditions and connection points between aesthetics and other disciplines At the same time the authors are also interested in practical clashes of methodology and agenda especially when it is not merely about the securing of the position of one or the other discipline but is used in a dialogical manner as the form of understanding better the nature of both as well as the benefits of their collaboration The authors work on the border of aesthetics and at least one other academic field Through their regular scholarly activities the contributors constantly benefit from cross and interdisciplinary practice and this makes them ideal interpreters of these methodological questions Contributors include Mami Aota Karl Axelsson Paul Duncum Lisa Giombini Oiva Kuisma Jacob Lund Tyrus Miller Max Ryyänen Mateusz Salwa Zoltán Somhegyi Wendy Steiner and Joseph Tanke

Aesthetic Conflict and Contradiction Samuel Cuff Snow, 2023-10-04

The central claim of this comparative study of Kant and Kierkegaard is that the aesthetic experience of the sublime is both autonomous and formative for extra aesthetic ends Aesthetic autonomy is thus inseparable from aesthetic heteronomy In Part I through an examination of Kant's Critique of Judgement and his essays on the French Revolution the Kantian sublime is shown to conflict with our existing cognitive moral and political frames of meaning at the same time that the engagement of the aesthetic judge Chapter 1 or the enthusiastic spectator Chapter 2 with this conflict furthers our pursuit of cognitive moral and political ends The Kantian sublime is built on the autonomy of aesthetic judgement which nevertheless has non aesthetic value Part II argues that certain aesthetic and ethical religious figures in Kierkegaard's work can be shown to be transfigurations of the Kantian sublime despite the absence of the term Antigone and the silhouettes from Either/Or embody what I coin the tragic sublime and sublime grief The God man in Practice in Christianity is interpreted as a sublime image of contradiction The figures are submitted to aesthetic representation while their contradictory interior lives are unrepresentable The Kierkegaardian sublime is built on a radical critique of aesthetic autonomy whose failure serves the end of ethico religious self formation

Social Appearances Barbara Carnevali, 2020-08-04 Philosophers have long distinguished between appearance and reality and the opposition between a supposedly deceptive surface and a more profound truth is deeply rooted in Western culture At a time of obsession with self representation when politics is enmeshed with spectacle and social and economic forces are intensely aestheticized philosophy remains moored in traditional dichotomies being versus appearing interiority versus exteriority authenticity versus alienation Might there be more to appearance than meets the eye In this strikingly original book Barbara Carnevali offers a philosophical examination of the roles that appearances play in social life While Western metaphysics and morals have predominantly disdained appearances and expelled them from their domain Carnevali invites us to look at society ancient to contemporary as an aesthetic phenomenon The ways in which we appear in public and the impressions we make in terms of images sounds smells and sensations are discerned by other people s senses and assessed according to their taste this helps shape our ways of being and the world around us Carnevali shows that an understanding of appearances is necessary to grasp the dynamics of interaction recognition and power in which we live and to avoid being dominated by them Anchored in philosophy and traversing sociology art history literature and popular culture Social Appearances develops new theoretical and conceptual tools for today s most urgent critical tasks
