

KPI - Explore and apply a range of textures and patterns using a range of materials to their own collage.
Resources - tissue paper, paper, card, magazines, flowers, twigs, leaves, feathers, bottle tops - Anything you can find in school -outside or you can save up from home.

" Wassily Kandinsky (A) - MI Russian

" Billy Kenny (A) - MI Cypriot English

-<http://www.comedianarts.co.uk/all-fur-coat/>

Lesson 1 - Look at Wassily Kandinsky and Billy Kenny's work and show the difference of a collage. What do they like, don't like. What materials have they used? What texture and pattern has been created? Then get them to either collage a tree or portrait. Also in the input I would ask the ch to glue together 2 piece of paper with glue - on one use loads on and the other just use a small amount - which is better? Then when they re-create one 'use a small amount of glue'. Make sure you print for every child a piece of paper with the two pieces of artwork on and the artist. They can then cut and stick this into their books and recreate around it / next to it or they can paper clip it to page after and just use it as reference (also explain they can do this during input).

Lesson 2 - (How explain further they have made a collage, layering a picture with different materials. You can use anything for this, tissue paper, paper, card, magazines - I have lots - flowers, twigs, leaves, feathers, bottle tops. It is all about using the right item to create the texture or pattern they want and layering) Use some good examples from the last lesson pointing out good parts of a collage e.g. this child layered, this child didn't use too much glue, this child used 5 different resources to build their collage etc. Now Design a collage referring back to the two artists and the key skills, of layering, texture and pattern. I would give them an end goal but can do in any style - E.G if the key text is 'life and the secret rain' could do a Kenya landscape (if so will need to show examples of Kenya landscapes and animals etc for inspiration) or could link to science and they collage an evergreen tree with flowering landscape or collage a flower of their choice and background.

Lesson 3 & 4 - Third lesson- they could start making their collage and the final lesson finish it. (Encourage editing along the way, if they don't like change it, I would give them the choice to do in book over two pages or an A3 one or A4)

Lesson 5 - Have this ready in case, if the children have not understood or majority did not get the learning objective. You can use an extra lesson to add texture and pattern on top their already made collages or make a new one completely with a more step by step lesson.
