Critiquing Art Work

	"Sister Night" (Whistler, 1864)	"All Around Her Christmass" (Thomas Kinkade)	"The Old Clockhouse" (Frederick Meiss)	"Mona Lisa" (Leonardo da Vinci)
CHARACTER AND PERSONALITY  What does the art tell you about the artist?  Can you tell what the artist was trying to say through this painting?  Any surprises?
COMPOSITION  What do the artist's arrangements of lines and colors tell you about the artist?  What do the lines, the colors, the shapes tell you about the artist?
INTERPRETATION  What story does the artist tell through his/her choice of colors?  What does the artist tell you about his/her personality?  What are the artist's values?  What are the artist's goals?

Geography, Art, Research Harriet Hawkins, 2020-09-27 This book explores the intersection of geographical knowledge and artistic research in terms of both creative methods and practice based research. In doing so it brings together geography's creative turn with the art world's research turn. Based on a decade and a half of ethnographic stories of working at the intersection of creative arts practices and geographical research this book offers a much needed critical account of these forms of knowledge production. Adopting a geohumanities approach to investigating how these forms of knowledge are produced, consumed and circulated it queries what imaginaries and practices of the key sites of knowledge making including the field, the artist's studio, the PhD thesis and the exhibition emerge and how these might challenge existing understandings of these locations. Inspired by the geographies of science and knowledge art history and theory and accounts of working within and beyond disciplines this book seeks to understand the geographies of research at the intersection of geography and creative arts practices how these geographies challenge existing understandings of these disciplines and practices and what they might contribute to our wider discussions of working beyond disciplines including through artistic research. This book offers a timely contribution to the emerging fields of artistic research and geohumanities and will appeal to undergraduate and postgraduate students and researchers

Why Art Criticism? A Reader Julia Voss, Beate Söntgen, 2022-04-20 How is art criticism to be understood within an expanding artistic field? A look at its history and its manifestations within globalized conditions shows the variety of the genre of the criteria and of the styles of writing. This reader is an attempt to bring a diverse range of art critical voices and perspectives into conversation with each other with texts from the 18th century to the present. The editors Beate Söntgen and Julia Voss have invited colleagues from various geographical and intellectual backgrounds to present and discuss the art critics of their choice choosing one example from their respective bodies of work to comment upon. How have these writers approached art criticism? Which styles do they employ? What makes them extraordinary? What can we learn from their writings today and why is it important in its contemporary context? BEATE SÖNTGEN 1963 is professor of art history at Leuphana University Lüneburg. She studied art history, philosophy and modern German literature in Marburg and Berlin. She is director of the DFG Research Training Group 'Cultures of Critique. Forms, Media, Effects' and co-director of the program 'PriMus. Doctoral Studies in Museums'. JULIA VOSS 1974 is an honorary professor at Leuphana University Lüneburg. She studied art history, modern German literature and philosophy in Berlin and London. She is herself an art critic and journalist and was deputy head of the arts section of the Frankfurter Allgemeine Zeitung

Making Art Form and Meaning offers a framework for understanding how all the aspects of an artwork subject matter medium form process and contexts interact. The text's wide array of examples and its emphasis on late modernism and postmodern art give students a thorough look at the expressive possibilities of traditional design elements and principles and contemporary practices including the use of computer based time based and lens based media. With artist quotes clearly defined key terms and a chapter dedicated to studio critiques Making Art allows students to join the conversation of contemporary art and gives them a jump start in thinking and talking about their work using the language and concepts of today's art world

Comparative Aesthetics:

The genesis of art form George Lansing Raymond, 1904 The Significance of Complexity Kees van Kooten Niekerk, Hans Buhl, 2023-01-06 Originally published in 2004. Thanks to computer simulations science is beginning to understand complex natural processes such as the weather, earthquakes and the evolution of life. The Significance of Complexity deals with the importance of the sciences of complexity for the humanities and theology. First three scientists explain the science of complexity and illustrate it with concrete examples. Second two scholars consider the concept of complexity and possible applications of complexity theory within the humanities e.g. as a tool to understand the interplay between the artist, the work of art and the user in interactive art. Finally three theologians ask what can be learned from the science of complexity for a religious understanding of humankind and the world. The Significance of Complexity is a pioneering work exploring the import of a fascinating new branch of science for human self-understanding. It caters for all those who are interested in relating science to the quest for the meaning of life
