A Catalogue of the Manuscripts of Christiaan Huygens including a concordance with his Oeuvres Complètes

Joella Yoder, 2013-05-13 A Catalogue of the Manuscripts of Christiaan Huygens inventories all known manuscripts written by Christiaan Huygens as well as all letters to or from him Because almost all of the manuscripts are housed at the University of Leiden in a collection entitled Codices Hugeniani the catalogue contains an inventory of that entire collection of family papers including many involving Constantijn Huygens In addition because most scholars begin their research by consulting Oeuvres Complètes de Christiaan Huygens which does not provide enough information to relocate the manuscripts edited therein this catalogue essentially footnotes every edited piece by listing the source manuscripts page by page for each volume Thus the researcher should be able to move easily between manuscript and edition The Works of Aphra Behn: The lover's watch. Poems upon several occasions. A voyage to the Isle of love. Lycidas; or, The lover in fashion. Miscellaneous poems. General index Aphra Behn, 1915 The Codes of California as Amended and in Force at the Close of the Thirty-sixth Session of the Legislature, 1905: Code of civil procedure. pt. 1, sections 1-1059; pt. 2, sections 1063-2104 California, 1908

Laws of the State of New York New York (State), 1890 History of the Military Company of the Massachusetts, Now Called the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts Oliver Ayer Roberts, 1895 Salvation in New England Phyllis M. Jones, Nicholas R. Jones, 2013-09-13 The sermon as crafted by the early New England preachers was the most prominent literary form of its day yet the earliest Puritan texts have as a rule been available only in rare book collections This anthology of sermons of the first generation of preachers fills a serious gap in American literature The preachers collected here the most widely published of their time were among the eighty or more who emigrated to Massachusetts Bay during the 1630s They are John Cotton of Boston Thomas Shepard of Cambridge and Thomas Hooker of Hartford the three foremost lights of the western churches and two eminent colleagues Peter Bulkeley of Concord and John Davenport first of New Haven and later of Boston The selections are chosen to be representative of the lengthy works from which they are drawn to reflect the major concerns and styles of the preachers work as a whole and to demonstrate the genre of the sermon as developed by the early American Puritans Not only does this anthology represent an important contribution to literary history but the sermons also illustrate a doctrine uniquely elaborated in this period a consistent and emphatic narrative mythlike in its repetition and heroics of the progress of the soul from a state of nature to a state of salvation This theme may be seen as a three stage development although individual sermons may vary These stages preparation vocation and regeneration determine the order of the selections The editors introductory material supplies a comprehensive and thorough discussion of the early New England sermons concentrating on their role history structure style and subject matter A separate essay on the texts of the sermons describes the relationship between the early printed versions and their form as delivered in the pulpit The introduction preceding each selection presents original research on the historical circumstances of the preaching and publication of the work from which the sermon is drawn The editors have also provided brief biographies of the preachers represented here an annotated list of recommended background reading and the most exhaustive checklist available of authoritative editions of the sermons of these five preachers This book will be useful to colonial specialists as well as to students of early American literature religion and history The texts are critically edited for readability with modernized spelling and annotations of unfamiliar phrases and allusions
