Beckett In An Hour Playwrights In An Hour:

Beckett in an Hour E. Teresa Choate, 2010 In 1933 the same year Hitler came to power in Germany a twenty seven year old Samuel Beckett watched as his father passed from this world into the next On his deathbed his father's final words to Beckett were fight fight fight and what a morning Though his father's gallows humor expressed itself in many of the plays Beckett wrote ultimately Beckett came to his own conclusions about death The ending lines of his last play may well be a response to his father's final words It is winter Without journey Time passes That is all Make sense who may In his plays Beckett's efforts to make sense of that journey established him as one of the most influential playwrights of the twentieth century Setting the playwright in context to his personal life social historical and political events other writers of influence and more you will quickly gain a deep understanding of Samuel Beckett and the plays he wrote Read Beckett in an Hour and experience his plays like never before Know the playwright love the play The book features Beckett in an Hour the primary essay in the book Beckett In a Minute a snapshot chronology A complete listing of Beckett's work A list of Beckett's contemporaries in all fields Excerpts from Beckett's plays An extensive bibliography grouped according to type of reader An index of the main essay Playwrights in an Hour is a series devoted to the most produced and studied playwrights in the English language from the Greek masters to contemporary writers and written by leading authorities in the field Each short book places the playwright and his or her work in historical social and literary context Dr E Teresa Choate a professor director and President of Alpha Psi Omega the National Honor Theatre Society Samuel Beckett has always been there I do not recall the one play one production or one experience when this playwright entered my consciousness Beckett was Beckett the watershed playwright of the 20th century The Tender Hour of Twilight Richard Seaver, 2012 A personal account by the late founder of Arcade Publishing documents his experiences in the literary world of the mid 20th century describing his efforts to overcome U S censorship laws and introduce readers to important written works American Dramatists in the 21st Century Christopher Bigsby, 2023-02-23 In American Dramatists in the 21st Century Opening Doors Christopher Bigsby examines the careers of seven award winning playwrights David Adjmi Julia Cho Jackie Sibbles Drury Will Eno Martyna Majok Dominique Morisseau and Anna Ziegler In addition to covering all their plays including several as yet unpublished he notes their critical reception while drawing on their own commentary on their approach to writing and the business of developing a career The writers studied come from a diverse range of racial religious and immigrant backgrounds Five of the seven are women Together they open doors on a changing theatre and a changing America as ever concerned with identity both personal and national This is the third in a series of books which together have explored the work of twenty four American playwrights who have emerged in the current century Writing and the Modern Stage Julia Jarcho, 2017-04-18 This book presents a new argument that reimagines modern theater's critical power and places innovative writing at the heart of the experimental stage The Bloomsbury Handbook of Radio Kathryn

McDonald, Hugh Chignell, 2023-01-26 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Radio presents exciting new research on radio and audio including broadcasting and podcasting Since the birth of radio studies as a distinct subject in the 1990s it has matured into a second wave of inquiry and scholarship As broadcast radio has partly given way to podcasting and as community initiatives have pioneered more diverse and innovative approaches so scholars have embarked on new areas of inquiry Divided into seven sections the Handbook covers Communities Entertainment Democracy Emotions Listening Studying Radio Futures The Bloomsbury Handbook of Radio is designed to offer academics researchers and practitioners an international comprehensive collection of original essays written by a combination of well established experts new scholars and industry practitioners Each section begins with an introduction by Hugh Chignell and Kathryn McDonald putting into context each contribution mapping the discipline and capturing new directions of radio research while providing an invaluable resource for radio studies

Playwrights at Work George Plimpton, 2000 In this volume some of the 20th century's greatest playwrights talk about their craft In doing so they prove that reports of the death of the theatre have been greatly exaggerated From the experiences that inspire their work Harold Pinter on growing up in the East End Arthur Miller on McCarthyism to their experiences of their work Edward Albee on ignoring and attacking the critics Tom Stoppard on fame and money these discussions assert a profound belief in the power and necessity of theatre Other interviewees include Thornton Wilder Lillian Hellman Tennessee Williams Eugene Ionesco Samuel Beckett Athol Fugard Neil Simon John Guare David Mamet Sam Shepard Wendy Wasserstein and August Wilson

Playwright Versus Director Sidney Berger, 1994-08-30 Giving equal space to the sanctity of script and the artistic freedom of directors this book addresses the difficulties encountered by playwrights and directors as they bring a script to the stage Inspired directors can help a writer of genius turn his play into exciting theatre but playwrights find that giving directors leeway to interpret and modify text can result in directors overriding authorial intentions This book presents the best that has been written by literary theorists on the current definitions of text and attempts to depart from quick rule of thumb assessments of the problem Drawing from definitive articles in literary and theatre journals part one gives the reader basic concepts and terminology Interviews with playwrights and directors showing the complexity of the issue appear in part two and part three includes case studies of playwrights and directors who faced production crises Legal aspects of collaboration are considered in part four The book concludes with a positive approach and possible solution to the problem
