Becoming Friends With Food Again:

Give Yourself Permission to Shine Grace King,2012-04-04 Grace King was an only child brought up by her mother a single parent She had a normal childhood and was always a high achiever with a positive attitude But without her fathers acceptance and love underlying feelings of rejection inadequacy and guilt engulfed her Her great grandmother died and Grace had her heart broken by her first love guilt regret and self hatred soon set the foundation for her to fall victim to the vicious grip of bulimia For more than ten years she struggled to free herself from bulimias hold and became lonely depressed and desperate After years of self destruction disappointment and regret her conscience collapsed and she longed for her healthy and meaningful life back more than ever Grace was forever grateful for the friendships she forged and for the relationships she endured knowing how much they had taught her about the meaning and purpose of life She was always hopeful that one day looking in the mirror would bring back the feeling of acceptance and happiness to a now repulsed sad and lost soul She embarked on a transformational journey that depended on the choices she made each day Her heart was filled with endless hope courage and commitment to searching for the solution toward knowing herself again and being true to herself Through prayer she found the path that led her to the light and allowed herself to be cured It was through surrendering her bulimia to God she learnt to love and forgive herself and she finally embraced her healing She is a survivor and hopes her story will help save other lives too

Contemporary Migration Literature in German and English Sandra Vlasta,2015-10-14 Up until now migration literature has primarily been defined as texts written by migrant authors a definition that has been discussed criticised and even rejected by critics and authors alike Very rarely has migration literature been understood as literature on the topic of migration which is an approach this book adopts by presenting a comparative analysis of contemporary texts on experiences of migration By focusing on specific themes and motifs in selected texts this study suggests that migration literature is a sub genre that exists in both various bodies of literature as well as various languages This book analyses English and German texts by authors such as Monica Ali Dimitr Dinev Anna Kim Timothy Mo Preethi Nair Caryl Phillips Hamid Sadr and Vladimir Vertlib among others

Friendship Is Love Maseehah Cassim,2017-11-07 Macy Cahill is an enthusiastic teenager who felt like life was coming to an end when she lost the closest person to her hearther best friend Nathaniel Hale a k a Nate Losing him shattered her inside and out Depression distance sorrow and silence struck and it brought nothing but pain to her and everyone around her Through her closest friends Macy realized that this was just another obstacle weighing her down It took time but she finally realized that holding onto something thats not meant for her wasnt going to bring anything but pain While she was drowning she remembered how to swim and swam her way up to shore but in the process she not only saved herself but the life of another as wellBlake Henderson A hero doesnt always have to be a male figure It can be a female figure when she knows her worth in life and is strong enough to enact it
