Masculinities Clare A. Lees,Thelma S. Fenster,Jo Ann McNamara,1994 Ranging from questions of epic violence and heroic embodiments of manhood to constructions of bachelorhood husbandry and sainthood Medieval Masculinities is the first synthesis of medieval and gender studies to focus on masculinities Harry Brod editor of The Making of Masculinities We should not be working exclusively on the subjected sex any more than a historian of class can focus exclusively on peasants

Natalie Zemon Davis 1975 In the years since Natalie Davis made this remark men's studies and gender studies along with it has earned its place in scholarship What is often missing from such studies however is the insight that the concept of gender in general and that of masculinity in particular can be understood only in relation to individual societies examined at specific historical and cultural moments A brilliant application of this insight Medieval Masculinities is the first full length collection to explore the issues of men's studies and contemporary theories of gender within the context of the Middle Ages Interdisciplinary and multicultural the essays range from matrimony in medieval Italy to bachelorhood in Renaissance Venice from friars and saints to the male animal in the fables of Marie de France from manhood in Sir Gawain and the Green Knight Beowulf and the Roman d'Eneas to men as other whether Muslim or Jew in medieval Castilian epic and ballad The authors are especially concerned with cultural manifestations of masculinity that transcend this particular historical period idealized gender roles political and economic factors in structuring social institutions and the impact of masculinist ideology in fostering and maintaining power Together their essays constitute an important reassessment of traditional assumptions within medieval studies as well as a major contribution to the evolving study of gender Contributors Christopher Baswell Barnard College Vern L Bullough SUNY Buffalo Stanley Chojnacki Michigan State University John Coakley New Brunswick Theological Seminary Thelma Fenster Fordham University Clare Kinney University of Virginia Clare A Lees University of Pennsylvania Jo Ann McNamara Hunter College Louise Mirrer Fordham University Harriet Spiegel California State University Chico Susan Mosher Stuard Haverford College

Women's Emancipation Movements in the Nineteenth Century Sylvia Paletschek, Bianka Pietrow-Ennker, 2005-11-14 The nineteenth century a time of far reaching cultural political and socio economic transformation in Europe brought about fundamental changes in the role of women Women achieved this by fighting for their rights in the legal economic and political spheres In the various parts of Europe this process went forward at a different pace and followed different patterns Most historical research up to now has ignored this diversity preferring to focus on women's emancipation movements in major western European countries such as Britain and France The present volume provides a broader context to the movement by including countries both large and small from all regions of Europe Fourteen historians all of them specialists in women's history examine the origins and development of women's emancipation movements in their respective areas of expertise By exploring the cultural and political diversity of nineteenth century Europe and at the same time pointing out connections to questions explored by conventional scholarship the essays shed new light on common developments and problems
