Bedlam At The Brickyard:

Bedlam at the Brickyard Brenda Robertson Stewart, Wanda Lou Willis, M. B. Dabney, 2010-04 This is a collection of fifteen stories written by some of today's best emerging mystery writers. This delightful collection revolves around the Indianapolis Motor Speedway's 400 Mile stock car race and the festivities that surround it. Each story is separated by a historical narrative or statistical chart to enlighten as well as entertain the reader. All the stories are written by members of the Speed City Indiana Chapter of Sisters in Crime. The 21st North Carolina Infantry Lee W. Sherrill, Jr., 2015-04-14 The 21st North Carolina Troops 11th North Carolina Volunteers was one of only two Tar Heel Confederate regiments that in 1865 could boast from Manassas to Appomattox. The 21st was the only North Carolina regiment with Stonewall Jackson during his 1862 Valley Campaign and remained with the same division throughout the war. It participated in every major battle fought by the Army of Northern Virginia except the 1864 Overland Campaign when General Lee sent it to fight its own intense battles near New Bern and Plymouth. This book is written from the perspective of the 1,942 men who served in the regiment and is filled with anecdotal material gleaned from more than 700 letters and memoirs. In several cases it sheds new light on accepted but often incorrect interpretations of events. Names such as Lee, Jackson, Hoke, Trimble, Hill, Early, Ramseur, and Gordon charge through the pages as the Carolina regiment gains a name for itself. Suffering a 50 percent casualty rate over the four years, only 67 of the 920 young men and boys who began the war surrendered to Grant at its end. Civil War, 1998 Blue & Gray Magazine, 1999 The Midland Naturalist, 1880 The Flora of Warwickshire James Eustace Bagnall, William Bywater Grove, 1891 The Midland Naturalist Edward W. Ordnance Survey, 1874 The 1903 World Series Andy Dabilis, Nick Tsitos, 2015-01-27 The first World Series was a best of nine series between the Boston Americans and the Pittsburgh Pirates with the first three games to be played in Boston starting at the Huntington Avenue Grounds on October 1, 1903. The series started with baseball's winningest pitcher Cy Young throwing the first pitch and ended with baseball's greatest hitter Honus Wagner striking out on the last pitch. Boston won the series five games to three. Each game of the 1903 World Series and its key plays and players are thoroughly covered here and the authors also pay special attention to the great significance that first World Series held for the future of baseball. Not only was the survival of the American League at stake but baseball's place as the preeminent sport in America. The 1903 World Series drew more than 100,000 people to the ballparks and there was no doubt about the popularity of the game. It was as the authors point out played by men who had they not been baseball players would have been among the
