Becoming a Vessel of Honor Boniface G Gitau, 2017-05-02 A vessel of honor is a person whose sole intent in life is to live for God and not for himself This ultimate desire to please God drives him to seek an intimate relationship with God more than anything else he does for Him He loves God for who He is and not for what God has done for him The prayer of his heart is always for God to work in him before He can work through him and as God gives him grace to minister to others he uses every opportunity to glorify Christ alone His agenda is to be an avenue through which God can dispense His love and grace to a world that is wounded and lost A vessel of honor does not care for recognition or the praises of men his delight is in taking the place of a servant in order to do the will of his Master

God's Strategy in Human History Paul Marston,Roger Forster,2001-07-01 Forster and Marston have delivered a stellar book that attempts to present an exegetical and Scriptural framework for the content presented in the book Instead of beginning from a set of deductive theological assumptions and then attempting to support that system from Scripture Forster and Marston examine

Scripture and attempt to build their case directly from the text The authors unabashedly admit that their views are very similar to those of Arminian and Weslyan traditions but they state in the beginning of the book that they do not want to be labeled with these names but want to construct a theology that is in line with the teachings of the first 300 years of

Christianity Anyone who reads their appendix will come to understand that the teachings presented in this book were the orthodox consensus of the early Church for the first 300 years and that it was Augustine who introduced serious deviations into the mainstream orthodox Christianity of his time Forster and Marston begin by describing the battle that is being waged between God and the spiritual forces that oppose Him They examine the book of Job and see how this relates to the overall struggle Then the authors examine the 9th chapter of Romans to see if this book is dealing with election and individual destinies or God s actions within human history The authors do an excellent job of arguing for their opinion that this chapter is speaking about God s involvement in human history and it deals with God s choosing of one nation or individual over another nation or individual to accomplish His purpose Other sections of interest in this book are the sections on foreknowledge and predestination and the chapters on faith and works The section on faith and works was particularly interesting because it relies on much of the teaching of the new perspective which has shed much light on how a 1st century Palestinian Jew would have approached Scriptural issues The research argumenation and exegesis in this book are solid so every chapter is excellent but the ones mentioned above were two of my favorites Amazon com Seeing Christ in the New Testament Stephen Kaung,2010-09-29 The Holy Scriptures the Bible is the foundation of our faith It is God breathed It gives us the full knowledge of Him and of His Son This is the eternal life that they should know Thee the only true God and Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent John 17 3 God s word gives us eternal life through faith in Christ Jesus It makes us men and women of God It is most profitable for our spiritual life for it teaches us convicts us corrects us and instructs us in righteousness Thus we are made complete and fully equipped to do God s will We are exhorted by our Lord himself to search the Scriptures for in them is the witness concerning Him see John 5 37 A special blessing is given by God to those who read hear and keep His word see Revelation 1 3 The New Testament is composed of twenty seven books Each of these twenty seven books reveals Christ to us in a special aspect of His fullness Thus we are able to know Christ in His fullness In this volume each book in the New Testament is briefly discussed with special attention to seeing Christ in His fullness It is not an exhaustive study its purpose simply being to offer a taste of the sweet word of God so as to induce us to search His word more diligently May He draw us deeper into His word so that we may be drawn deeper into Him HWMR - Being a Vessel unto Honor, a Fully Equipped Man of God, by Being Empowered in the Grace Which Is in Christ Jesus to Fully Accomplish Our Ministry in the Unique Ministry of God's Economy Witness Lee,2024-07-02 This book is intended as an aid to believers in developing a daily time of morning revival with the Lord in His word At the same time it provides a limited review of the International Training for Elders and Responsible Ones held in Anaheim California on April 12 14 2024 The general subject of the training was Being a Vessel unto Honor a Fully Equipped Man of God by Being Empowered in the Grace Which Is in Christ Jesus to Fully Accomplish Our Ministry in the Unique Ministry of God s Economy Through intimate contact with the Lord in His word the believers can be constituted with life and truth and thereby equipped to prophesy in the meetings of the church unto the building up of the Body of Christ Become: A Vessel Unto Honor Saffie True Kamara,2019-11-15 When we think about becoming a vessel for God s use we usually think of people who are intellectual strong and spiritually sound let s face it we think of perfect people But what about the people society calls weak the black sheep of the family the stubborn child or the ones with so called messed up lives It s easy to feel alone and discouraged and believe your life is way too messed up for God to use But God uses all the messes and all pain They re all part of His divine plan You were perfectly knit together in your mother s womb and the Father made you wonderfully complex Every single day was laid out before you were formed It s all part of His wonderful plan for you The mess and pain are like boot camp your training ground Become
