The Book of Becoming What does it mean to return to yourself after a lifetime of fragmentation How do you hold both the child who aches and the woman who chooses without collapsing into either The Book of Becoming is a guide for women walking the long road of healing not toward perfection but toward wholeness With unflinching honesty Josphine traces the contours of the mother wound the ache of heartbreak and the sovereignty that emerges when we begin to protect our nervous systems as sacred land Drawing from somatic wisdom spiritual practices and the raw terrain of lived experience this book offers language for what so many women have carried silently the panic of falling behind the exhaustion of caretaking the longing for love that does not deplete This is not a book of quick steps or neat formulas It is an invitation into deeper embodiment slower rhythms and the courage to choose yourself without apology For every woman who has whispered there must be more than this here is a companion for the becoming you already carry within
