Character, Responsibility, and Well-Being: Influences on Mental Health and Constructive Behavior Patterns Danilo Garcia,Trevor Archer,Ann-Christine Andersson Arntén,2016-05-25 Character can be defined as self aware knowledge that helps the individual to set goals values and ethical principles Cloninger 2004 This meta cognitive dimension of human personality involves Theory of Mind and is positively related to measures of well being mental health and constructive behavior patterns Research from at least three different fields cultural Shweder Much Mahapatra communion which is related to engagement in the protection and relations to others such as families companies or nations and spirituality which is related to the human ability to transcend the self and find and interconnection with all life and appreciation of the whole world around us Haidt 2006 Cloninger 2013 Using the Temperament and Character Inventory Cloninger Svarkic Przybeck 1993 researchers have found that agentic i.e Self directedness and communal i.e Cooperativeness values are associated to high levels of happiness psychological well being and less violent behavior Moreover low Self directedness and Cooperativeness is recurrent among individuals with all types of mental health problems such as depression schizophrenia anxiety disorder autism spectrum disorders attention deficit hyperactivity disorder and etcetera Spirituality in coherence with agency and communion guides the individual to seek self realization in harmony with others and nature in the changing world Cloninger 2013 Seeing character as self awareness of the self in three dimensions has also been associated to human responsibility and empowerment This research topic will focus on all article types that put forward findings regarding Character as a protective factor against mental illness Character s association to conduct disorders and violent behavior Character as a promoter of happiness life satisfaction and well being The etiology of character Longitudinal studies on character Agency communion and spirituality as broad dimensions for the conceptualization of positive measures of mental health Innovative methods to measure or conceptualize character Non linear effects of character on mental health Character as a measure conceptualization of responsibility Character in school and work place settings Character in relation to empowerment

Paul Ricoeur and the Hope of Higher Education Daniel Boscaljon,Jeffrey F. Keuss,2021-01-14 The essays in Paul Ricoeur and the Hope of Higher Education The Just University discuss diverse ways that Paul Ricoeur s work provides hopeful insight and necessary provocation that should inform the task and mission of the modern university in the changing landscape of Higher Education This volume gathers interdisciplinary scholars seeking to reestablish the place of justice as the central function of higher education in the twenty first century The contributors represent diverse backgrounds including teachers scholars and administrators from R1 institutions seminary and divinity schools as well as undergraduate teaching colleges This collection edited by Daniel Boscaljon and Jeffrey F Keuss offers critical and practical visions for the renewal of higher education The first part of the book provides an internal examination of the university system and details how Ricoeur s thinking assists on pragmatics from syllabus design to final exams to daily teaching The second portion of the book examines the Just University s role as a social institution within the broader cultural world and looks at how Ricoeur s description of values informs how the university works relative to religious belief prisons and rural poverty

Revisioning Diversity in Communication Studies Amardo Rodriguez,2010 Communication is fundamentally a relational phenomenon Through communication we create relationships that frame how we perceive and relate to the world and each other Every relationship sets off different social political and epistemological implications and consequences and possesses the potential to fundamentally change the world This book presents an emergent definition of communication and demonstrates the promise of this definition for enlarging our understanding and experience of what is possible Communication is defined in terms of vulnerability Vulnerability assumes that our humanity is bound up with the humanity of others This book is about possibility and our own potentiality to create just and humane worlds and it demonstrates how a new vision of communication studies by expanding our moral and theoretical imagination can allow us to look anew at our own potentiality and that of the world Stories of Hope Sandra Abegglen,Tom Burns,Richard F. Heller,Rajan Madhok,Fabian Neuhaus,John Sandars,Sandra Sinfield,Upasana Gitanjali Singh,2025-07-02 Higher education is in crisis Students are disengaged lecturers are burned out and universities seem more preoccupied with rankings and revenue than with knowledge and wellbeing But rather than dwell on the problems this book focuses on solutions on hope Bringing together a diverse range of educators and practitioners this collection showcases real world innovations that challenge the status quo and offer glimpses of a more humane and inspiring educational future From rethinking systems and curriculum design to fostering imaginative collaboration and exploring the role of technology the book highlights practical hopeful interventions that are already making a difference This is not a manifesto of complaints but an invitation to reimagine education The contributors offer fresh perspectives from around the world illustrating how small but meaningful changes can transform learning spaces empower educators and inspire students For academics teachers administrators and anyone invested in the future of education this book serves as both a source of inspiration and a call to action It is an evolving ecosystem of ideas grounded in practice rich with possibility and rooted in radical hope Now is the time to create the change we wish to see

Inside Mrs. B.'s Classroom : Courage, Hope, and Learning on Chicago's South Side Leslie Baldacci,2003-08-25 A respected journalist turned teacher reveals what's really happening in America's schools In 1999 Chicago Sun Times veteran Leslie Baldacci left her prestigious twenty five year career to teach at a public school in one of Chicago's roughest South Side neighborhoods As she later commented I thought I knew rough I thought I had answers I didn't know jack But Baldacci never looked back and the result is Inside Mrs B's Classroom a compelling first hand narrative from the trenches of the inner city school system that addresses one of society's most critical issues from gritty daily personal experience An expert on Chicago's massive education reform efforts even before she turned in her press credentials Baldacci adds an informed intellectual layer to this insightful engaging work In an era in which many people talk about wanting to make a difference Baldacci has done so Here she shares the whole picture from the unrealistic expectations to the surprises good and bad that make up education today Above all she shows how an individual can did and continues to make a difference in the lives of American children
